THE CANADIAN CHAMPION.

The recent match at Toronto, under the auspices of the Draughts Club, of that city, between Wm. Forsyth, of Halifax (the checker editor of the Halifax Critic), and Edward Kelly, of Winnipeg, Man. (who has for two years or more assumed the title of "chempion"), for the checker championship of Canada and the trophy consisting of a cold

Man. (who has for two years or more assumed the title of "chempion"), for the checker championship of Canada and the trophy, consisting of a gold watch costing about $100, resulted in a decided victory for Mr. Forsyth. The victor has the congratulations of many in Middlesex and the west, where he is exceedingly well known.

He is a frequent visitor to these parts. The score in this match stood: Forsythe 8, Kelly 2, drawn 14. Though the agreement was originally that 30 games should be played, Mr. Kelly at this stage, finding victory hopeless, gave up the contest and acknowledged bimself defeated. In a private letter written by Mr. Forsyth on the day after the contest opened he speaks in the highest terms of the kindness and attention shown to wim by the members of the Toronto Draught Club and other checkerists who had assembled from other points to witness the match. The result adds and the relief of the property of Mr. Forsyth's long atting of the property of Mr. Forsyth's long atting of the property is presented. to witness the match.
