Connection With C. P. R. Ottawa, Feb. 11. - A question of great interest to municipalities will come before the railway commission At the meeting of the next week.

board yesterday afternoon Ex-Mayor Cook and president of the Municipal Unions of Canada, applied for the fixing of an early date to hear the applications of the towns of Port Arthur and Fort William to connect thei municipal telephone systems with the C. P. R. stations in the two towns. He said the matter was a very urgen one, as the citizens of Fort William and Port Arthur were greatly inconenienced by reason of the refusal of the C. P. R. Company to make the requisite connections. The board fell in with Mr. Cook's view, and lifted the applications from the bottom of the list, and making them the second for

The C. R. Somerville Young Ladies

Hold a Successful Assembly.

The young ladies of C. R. Somerville's heid a very successful leap year dance at Dayton & McCormick's dancing academy on Tuesday evening. The gentlemen had to take a back' seat and wait until they were asked to dance by those of the fairer sex. Although it required some fortitude for the ladies to start such a procedure they were not to be discouraged by one refusal, but each continued until a partner was secured. The forgetfulness of one of the young men cost him a fine of 50 cents for engaging one young lady for a dance

He was also ushered to a seat by one of the committee and there had to pose as a wallflower. The ladies in charge are to be congratulated on the success of the affair, and the boys wish that leap year would
