The preliminary bout between Kid Batten, a lightweight champion of England and South Africa, and Gordon Graham, a local wrostler, furnished plenty of excitement.

It was an interesting match. Graham, with training, should make good.

After the match Yankee Rogers announced that he was willing to meet any wrestled the management might name. He stated that he had always been on the level, and had given his friends a run for their money. It is probable that a match may be arranged for him.

Rogers has a fine record. He held Gotch, the champion, to a draw in thirty minutes, and not long ago had some ribs broken at the hands of Yussiff Mahmout, another Terrible Turk, while giving an exhibition in Toronto.

FIRST BALL GAME ON GOOD FRIDAY

The first baseball game of the season will be played at Tecumseh Park on Good Friday afternoen, between Mike Good Friday afternoen, between Mike Tierney's Stars and Abbie Johnson's semi-professionals.

These two teams should furnish some classy ball, as the semi-professional players will soon be leaving to play in the minor leagues, and will line up with Toots Jeffries, Chester Jeffries, McHugh, Keenan and Johnson. The Stars will have their regular City League team.

Toronto, April 7.—Since his performance of last Saturday, many are of the opinion that there is not another good race left in the Indian, but Tom Flanagan, however, does not share this view. Indeed, he believes, with proper training, Mr. Longboat can master this Frenchman from Gay Paree, and his great Irish heart beats for another race between the heart beats for another race between the twain. Furthermore, Flanagan knows a "certain party" who will put up $5,000 that Longboat can wallop St. Yves in three weeks' time, provided the Indian will do as he is told and be guided in his training by Flanagan absolutely. And if Longboat wins he can live like an Indian gendoat with the Smoke, and also authorizes McIntosh to post the necessary $5,000 to seal the contract. Now that large conversational bets are being made on the Indian's ability to beat the Frenchman, we may get ready for the announcement that another prize Marathon will be held very shortly, with Longboat and St. Yves playing the bero roles. There will be something interesting when they meet, and then perhaps the Redskin will be chased back to the reservation to make baskets.

The intermediate team will consist of Smith, Morris, George, Henderson, Martin and Brady.

The senior team will line-up with Brock, Strodle, Oakley, Logan and Jones. The teams will be accompanied by a large crowd of rooters, and will leave Saturday morning.
