Columbus, Sept. 28.-For the fourth time this season, the four-year-old filly purse at the Bay City fair recently. The Joan defeated the season's leading

Great Time Made.

In the first heat of the Buckeye stake, eers elected to make the pace with pudie Archdale, and it resolved itself duel between the two mares, the other four starters cutting no figure. The favorite led to the three-quarters, where McDevitt came up with Joan, and the finish was one which brought the spectators to their feet, the whips cracking at every stride, but at the finish the Cleveland filly was a neck to the good in 2:06, wonderful time for the track, which was still heavy from the rain of McHenry Is Back. The second heat was a repetition of the first with the same result, slower time. first with the same result, slower time. In the third Geers tried different tactics, allowing Joan to set the pace and then attempting to outbrush her in the stretch, but it was no use, the filly was by far the best today and won a cleancut victory. Baron Penn, driven by Myron McHenry, who made his first appearance on the harness turf after an absence of two years, in this race, finished third, and was a contender in the ed third, and was a contender in the third heat all the way.

Startle's Fifth Victory.

The real big surprise of the afternoon came in the 2:09 trot, in which the best field of first-class trotters which has turned for the word this season started. On the strength of his great race at Syracuse two weeks ago, the Canadian stallion, General H., was favorite, selling at $100, while the field brought about the at $100, while the field brought about the same. The horse from the far northwest was never in the hunt, but the Monroe, Michigan, gelding, Startle, who sold for $10 in $200 pools, chased the foreign trotter, Willy, a Detroit winner last week, all the way to the stretch in the first heat, and then trotted him into the ground, beating him in 2:05¼, everything considered, the most sensational heat of the year, as the track was considered for

"Tinker to Evers to Chance," wrote the poet commenting upon the great double-play trio of the Cubs. The words, which have become famous, may be taken to signify that Mr. Tinker is some baseballist. Otherwise he would not be the victim of a baseball poet.

Tinker will be a factor in the winning or losing of the world's series for the Cubs. Although not much larger than the oft-referred to pint measure, Tinker is the "beezy kid" when cavorting around the territory between second and third, and for a man of his inches, he certainly can clout the ball. #### NEXT WEEK'S SCHEDULE

Two Games Will Be Played Each Day, Commencing at 4:15—Yesterday's Results.

Soccer football is now the rage at the Collegiate Institute. An inter-form league has been organized, and as the boys evidently mean business there will be some warmly-contested games. On Monday warmly-contested games. On Monday afternoon the Upper School defeated the team of Middle II. by a score of 4 to 1, while Lower IX. were victoriious over Middle III., the score being 1-0. Rev. Mr. Bingham refereed the games to the satisfaction of all.

Two Games Yesterday.

Yesterday two interesting and exciting games were played, when Lower X. defeated Lower XI. by 1-0, and Commercial (junior) lost to Lower III. by the Heavyweight.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Miles McLeod, the farmer boy from Albany, Mo., who aspires to wrestle the heavyweight championship from Jack Johnson, boxed two rounds with Joe Choynski yesterday.

After the bout Choynski declared McLeod to be one of the most promising hovices he had ever boxed, and said that with two months' proper handling. McLeod would be able to give any of the heavy-series.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—President John T. Brush, of the New York National League baseball club, who has been in Chicago several months, left for his home in New York Brush said that he will make arrangements for a post-season series of games between his team and the New York Americans as soon as he finds out that the New York public wants such a Series. two months' proper handling, McLeod would be able to give any of the heavyweights a stiff argument. According to Choynski, McLeod has a left which is phenomenal, and as soon as he is taught how to use it, he will develop into one of the best two-handed fighters in the
