THREE PRESENTATIONS
MADE TO BRETHREN

Messrs. C. C. Reed, J. E. Johnson and David Gillett Were Honored.

At the regular meeting of Kilwinning Lodge, No. 64, A. F. and A. M., held last night, three presentations to brethren were made.

Wor. Bro. C. C. Reed, who is leaving next week for a three months' trip to England, was given a handsome travelling bag. The presentation was made by V. Wor. Bro. E. W. M. Flock, who referred to the faithfulness of Bro.
Reed. Seldom was he absent from the lodge, and he always stood ready to do the best he could in the interests of the craft. He wished Bro. Reed, on behalf of the lodge, a safe journey and a pleasant holiday. The latter responded briefly, thanking the brethren for their kindness to him, not only on this occasion, but at all times.

The next was the presentation of a gold locket suitably engraved to Wor.
Bro. J. E. Johnson, who is leaving the city shortly for Calgary, where he has been transferred to the railway mail clerk service. Wor. Bro. Keays made the presentation, and spoke of the excellent service rendered Kilwinning during his long connection with the lodge. He wished him prosperity and happiness in the west. Bro. Johnson, in a brief reply, thanked the members for their gift and for their uniform kindness to him, all the time he has been in the lodge.

Bro. David Gillett, who is leaving for Vancouver shortly, was also given a locket suitably engraved. Wor. Bro.
G. G. Steele made the presentation, and expressed regret that he had been a very loyal member of the craft, and the brethren wished to recognize his services. Bro. Steele hoped that Bro. Gillett responded briefly.

After the lodge adjourned a banquet was held, at which a number of the brethren made speeches.

cated to Mrs. Napolitano as soon as

UPON STUDENTS

One Master of Arts and Eight Bachelors at the Western University.

CONVOCATION LAST NIGHT

Rev. Richard Whiting's Strong Words in Regard to the Curse of War —Other Addresses.

The Western University arts convocation was held last night in the old convocation hall in the university building. The graduating class was larger in numbers than previous years, and the graduates, undergraduates, friends and well-wishers of the university.

Degrees Conferred.
The degrees were conferred by Judge Coulter, of St. Thomas, assisted by the Registrar, Mr. F. Taylor, Dr. W. F. Tamm, and the degree of B. A. was conferred on Miss Muriel Powell, Miss E. Valerie Carothers, Miss Agnes Vrooman, Miss Jennie Giles, Mr. Edwin Hawkins, and Mr.
Charles Evans, all of whom were present to receive their degrees. The bachelor's degree was conferred on Miss Lenore F. Taylor, and Mr.
D. E. Cameron. The degree of master of arts was conferred on Mr. Neville Lascelles Ward, who received his bachelor's degree from the Western University in 1910.

The Valedictory.
The valedictory address of the graduating class was read by Miss Muriel Powell, who emphasized the problem of life, awaiting the graduate going out from collegiate walls. The college graduate should stand for the right kind of culture. To be cultured is not merely to know Latin or Greek, but to maintain the right relations to the world and our fellows. A new era is dawning in the world, which is marked by the earnest efforts for the betterment of mankind. Sympathy is the most potent factor in the evolution of mankind. The world is full of suffering, and it is our duty to alleviate it. Miss Powell's address was characterized by an unusually thoughtful and serious tone, in addition to being prepared and exceptionally well delivered.

The Smaller University.
In brief address, previous to the conferring of the degrees, Judge Coulter referred to the excellent opportunity for culture and education offered by the smaller university. "Professors and faculties are much more able to impress their character and influence upon the students in a smaller rather than a larger university," he said. "I believe that the smaller university is the one that is best adapted to the needs of the world."

Miss Powell's address was characterized by an unusually thoughtful and serious tone, in addition to being prepared and exceptionally well delivered.

WHO WILL SUCCEED
REV. A. K. BIRKS?

London Methodist Conference Will Elect New President Shortly.

The London Methodist Conference will open a week from next Tuesday at Stratford, and already there is the keenest speculation as to who will be the new president to succeed Rev. A.
K. Birks. Four names are mentioned in connection with the nominations.
Rev. D. N. McCamus, of St. Marys, who is coming to the Colborne Street Methodist Church; Rev. George H.
McAllister, of Blenheim, formerly of the Centennial Methodist Church; Rev.
J. E. Ford, of Wesley Church, Clinton, and Dr. Warner, principal of St. Thomas Alma Ladies' College at St. Thomas.
Local pastors are looking for a very keen contest, as all the men mentioned are men of the highest standing in the conference.

The conference opens on Tuesday morning, May 23, and the election will be the first business proceeding after the report of the stationing committee.

Only two changes directly affect London: Rev. E. Malott goes from Colborne Street Methodist Church to St. Thomas, and Rev. D. N. McCamus comes here; Rev. A. K. Birks goes to Dundas, and Rev. W. H. Harvey, of that place, comes to the Askin Street Methodist Church. There are a number of changes in the district.
