Tecs' Manager Accepts 23 Chances Without An Error.

Special to The Advertiser.

Hamilton, Aug. 22.—Bill Coogan, star right-hander of the London Tecumseh's hurling corps, eclipsed his previous per-formances this season, when he lasted over three Hamilton hurlers to take the longest game of the season Saturday. The final count was 5 to 4, with the visitors getting their winning tally their half of the fifteenth inning, Rol their half of the fifteenth inning. Robertson's failure to hold Kernan's easy pop fly allowing Cross to score from third. Coogan wobbled slightly in the early innings, but after the locals had tied with four runs secured by the Baker crew in the first and eighth, he was invincible, and mowed the Clippers down with regularity before one of the largest crowds of the season.

In the second game, the time limit to allow the teams to catch trains was just enough for the visitors to take a 3 to 0 decision in five innings. In this enough for the visitors to take a sto of decision in five innings. In this game, Rynearson breezed through, allowing only three blows, and was not in danger in any one of the five frames. The londoners went through the 20 innings without an error.

The lengthy contest that made up the first half of the double bill was filled with brilliant features, the most noteworthy of which was the sensational shortstopping of Manager Baker, of the Tecumséhs, who handled no less than 19 chances without the semblance of a slip. Baker roamed from third to second, and even back of the bag to grab off many drives that looked like sure hits, and was prominent in almost every inning. Vermilyea and Coogan also helped out greatly in the infield.

Hamilton used three hurlers in an attempt to stop the rush of the Chirps to the second half pennant. Ryan started the tilt, but was derricked in favor of Work in the seventh. The latter was tempt to stop the rush of the Chilips the second half pennant. Ryan started the tilt, but was derricked in favor of Webb in the seventh. London staged a great start in the opening inning by scoring a pair off Ryan. Sandquist laced out a double to open the game, and after Baker and Stimpson had skied out. Cross bounced another two-bagger against the scoreboard in right to send Sandy in. Brower's hard roller to Roper enabled Cross to tally the second.

Hamilton pulled even in the fourth. McCrea was hit and Duckworth doubled. The former scoring on Robertson's infield out, and Duckworth crossed the plate when Bashang lined to right for a double. Neitzke's single in the sixth, scoring Ryan, put the Clippers one to the good, but the lead was short-lived, for hits by Klein, Coogan. Sandquist and Baker sent over two tallies for London in the seventh. Riley's single, a walk to Bashang and Roper's blow to center evened the count for the Wetzel crew in the eighth.

Special to The Advertiser. Saginaw, Aug. 23.-Flint gave Saginaw's pennant hopes a rude jolt today by taking both games of a double-header from the Aces, 11 to 1, and 5 to 3. My years of inside information convinced me that, on the whole, college football in I can recall some pretty shady business back in the old days, but I know that virtually all of this raw professionalism has now been done America in surprisingly clean.

I am not in sympathy with the agi. I am not in sympathy with the agitators who are attacking the game and starting an outery against it.

But,—and on this qualincation my whole story hangs,—the last few years have transformed both the inside and outside of football, and it is my firm belief that the real friends of the game current to answer the of the game ought to answer the agitators by putting all the facts in the open and taking their stand on

I myself have helped to cover up things in the past, which, with a reasonable faculty and public attitude toward the game, might well have been openly discussed. There is a "No Man's Land," in the annual athletic accounting of most American colleges, in which certain items are buried. The graduate managers and the coaches who do this manipulating are perfectly honest men, and generally results in athletic governing bodies incurring large indebtedness. This indebtedness can be removed only by subscriptions and increased gate receipts. Both subscriptions and safe receipts depend on

This straw man could have been knocked over long ago, if the men behind football had come out openly and accepted and defended the necessity of playing the game to win, and had done openly and courageously and done furtively.

Interesting tennis matches resulted when the C. P. R. entertained the men members of the St. James's Anglican tennis club on the former's courts. A feature was the singles match between Jack McCarthy and John Graham. Jack Graham won after dropping the first set. Another feature was the doubles between J. Liddle and J. Graham (St. James) and J.
