

Look at the Thousands of rolls of Wall Paper we have in stock. Marvellous of beauty and design. Prices don't count this year in proportion to the quality and attractiveness of our Wall Paper. See what we have. Selling clerks to show you the immense variety of stock.

O. B. GRAVES

222 DUNDAS STREET.

SPRING

Our spring stock now complete. Give us a call and we will guarantee to give you every satisfaction.

DEEKS & Co. OPPOSITE

WE HAVE RE-MODELLED OUR STORE And have the finest confectionery store in the city. Call and get an idea cream soda.

KENT'S, DUNDAS ST.

WOOD

you kindly listen.

It WOOD give us great pleasure to give you good measure. And the very best quality, too. Of WOOD we have plenty. But the fill is near empty.

And WOOD trade for money with you.

DALY.

19 York Street, 3rd Floor, Phone 348.

Dr. W. H. Graham, 195 King St. West, Toronto, Ont.

Gives special for Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Eczema, Itch, etc. Private treatment. Diseases of Women—Painful, Profuse, or Suppressed Menstruation, Leucorrhoea and all Displacements of the Womb.

195-197, W. H. & E. W.

DISTRICT NEWS.

A juvenile lodge of the Sons of England will be organized in Galt.

Miss Neilson, of Toronto, has been appointed head nurse of the Galt Hospital.

Little Maude Simpson, aged one year and a half, was killed by a car at Preston. It entered her mouth and several stitches were necessary in the roof.

Tuesday morning a train of thirty-five cars of salt left Windsor over the C. P. R. for the Canadian North-west.

For the first time an entire salt train has left Windsor.

James A. McGrath, of Windsor, died at St. Mary's Hospital, Detroit, Tuesday evening from the effects of an operation for cancer. He was 50 years old, and was employed in the Canadian merchant tailor shop.

Mr. George Collier, of Ilorton, has purchased from Mr. Donald Burns, of Hensall, that fine imported Clydesdale station, Stephen, which is one of the best stock horses that ever travelled in the county of Essex. The price paid was $1,000.

Glennie Transcript—John Hamilton, a farm hand employed by Messrs. David and Wm. McArthur, of Glenora, has been found dead, a silver watch, a revolver and the money he could lay his hands on, not a very large amount, however. No other clues were discovered.

Exeter Advocate—"R. Horn has disposed of the late Harry Horn, for the sum of $1,100. Mr. Horn had rented the hotel of Geo. W. Griffiths, of Exeter, north, while Mr. Donohue, who had previously leased the hotel, was in London, and had moved to London. Mr. S. Bratt will move into the Exeter hotel north. Mr. Horn will move his family to Exeter.

Says the Paris Star-Transcript—"A considerable action is that of Mayor Ouchard, who has been elected to a second term, and thrown open to the citizens of Paris the Municipal Park for a recreation ground, where the children and young people will be able to indulge in various outdoor games, and the privilege this afforded will not be abused, and that the buildings will not be damaged."

Hiram A. Wolfe, ex-controller of Port Huron, was found guilty of embezzlement Wednesday in Detroit. In the spring of 1896 he suddenly and mysteriously disappeared. His disappearance was a great loss to his family. The trial lasted three weeks, and was highly interesting. The best legal talent in the city being engaged. The general prediction was that Wolfe could not be convicted. The defence was insanity.

Barnie Observer—"G. T. Trainman Cunningham held a social visit on Wednesday afternoon, the outcome of which will not be greatly appreciated by the citizens of St. James. Mr. Cunningham's short stay at the hotel where he gave a party, and the result of it, was a great loss to his family. The trial lasted three weeks, and was highly interesting. The best legal talent in the city being engaged. The general prediction was that Wolfe could not be convicted. The defence was insanity.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Mr. J. W. Peterson, lately organized as chairman of the First Methodist Church, has been appointed to a similar position in the Memorial Church.

Lieut. Mumford, of the Salvation Army here, has received word to leave well on May 9th. She has not yet been notified of her new field of labor.

Strong's Baking Powder

DEFIES ALL HONEST COMPETITION.

25 CENTS PER POUND.

Strong's Drug Store.

FREE To housekeepers on application, a valuable receipt book on the art of cooking.

Marriage Licenses issued at above address.

NOTICE.

All small transient ads. must be paid for in advance. We cannot open accounts unless parties have advertising contracts with us.

FREE PRESS PRINTING CO.

ASTRONOMICAL.

London, Friday, April 29, 1897. Sun rises, 5:11 a.m. Moon rises, 4:12 a.m. Sun sets, 7:18 p.m. Moon sets, 6:36 p.m. Day of the year—129th.

MOON'S PHASES. New Moon, 1st, 11:07 p. m. 1st Quarter, 8th, 3:30 a. m. Full Moon, 15th, 1:46 a. m. Last Quarter, 22nd, 4:31 p. m.

METEOROLOGICAL SERVICE OF CANADA.

Unsettled and Cooler, with Rain.

Toronto, Ont., April 29, 11 p. m.—Since last night the low area has scarcely moved, while the high has spread eastward across northern Ontario. The rain continues over the western part of the lake region, and is extending eastward.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Probabilities: Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong winds or moderate gales from north-east and north; unsettled and cooler, with rain.

Local temperature: The highest and lowest readings of the thermometers at the Observatory on Thursday, April 29, 1897, were:—Highest, 72 above; lowest, 43.5 below.

Miss Maggie Haight, of Frome, has secured a situation in London.

Mr. M. Kaufman, of this city, is in Hesperia reviewing acquaintances.

Mrs. Wm. Horner, of this city, is waiting on her sister, Mrs. McNally, at Blyth.

Mrs. (Dr.) Rollins, of Exeter, has been here during the past week under treatment.

Rev. Mr. Wilson, of this city, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Charles Barry, of Stratford.

Miss Lottie Leathorn, of Exeter, entertained a number of her friends on Tuesday evening, prior to her leaving for Lonsdale, and in the evening the Milling to operate saps—"Let us spray."

"Gaddies is a remarkable man." "In what way?" "He uses our telephone without making lead pencil marks on the wall while waiting."

Miss Agnes Hankins, of Chicago, and Miss Etta Hankins, of this city, have been the guests of their sister, Mrs. Howard Dennis, at Norwich, of late.

These spraying exhibitions don't open with prayer, although a wag informs us that the manager before Milling to operate saps—"Let us spray."

On the 24th of May the Goderich base ball team will play a picked team from the city of London. The club will give a dramatic performance in Victoria Hall.

Master John Bell, who has been employed by Messrs. Hafford and Butcher, spry, Blyth, for some time, has accepted a position in a butcher shop in this city.

The executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. Ladies' Auxiliary is composed of Mesdames Samuel Glass, Dr. McTaggart Wood and Beltz, Mrs. D. Mills, president, instead of Mrs. McTaggart.

The names of the non-commissioned officers chosen by Lt.-Col. Gartschore to represent the 1st Hussars on the Canadian contingent of the Diamond Jubilee in England are Quartermaster Sergeant Herbert Widdon, Sergeant Major John Richardson, Sergeant Harry Gibbons, of London, and Corporal Trumpeter Wigie, of Kingsville.

On Monday next the price of all spirituous drinks will be raised in the Brantford hotels. A meeting of the hotel-keepers of that city was held Wednesday afternoon, when it was unanimously agreed to raise the price of whiskey, gin, brandy, rum and all spirituous liquors to 10c a glass instead of 8c as formerly. Several brands of cigars will also be raised in price.

Durchester Citizen—"The London Free Press comes to us enlarged and much improved. We receive it at 9 o'clock in the morning; quite a bit ahead of the Toronto dailies. It has moved west with glory of late in the matter of giving us full, up-to-date despatches from Ottawa, reporting debates without stint, up to adjournment of the night before or even of the same morning."

Stratford Herald—"The friends of Dr. Ogden will regret to hear that he and his family have permanently removed to London, where he has secured a position. Dr. Ogden came here last November, taking the office of Dr. W. N. Robertson, and in the short time intervening he succeeded in making many warm friends, who will wish him his most estimable family every success in their new location."

The many friends of Mrs. Chas. Oke, of Broughs Bridge, London Township, will regret to hear of her death, on the 28th inst., after a lingering illness of several months, which was borne with courage and cheerfulness, and resignation, qualities which were acquired in the best of schools, namely, the school of affliction and sorrow. In time of sickness and trouble, as on such occasions she was sought for near and far because she excelled in all of kindness to those in trouble. She leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband, Mr. Chas. Oke, and a son, William, aged 14, and a daughter, two sons, William and Richard, at the home, where they have resided for the past thirty years. They have the sympathy of their many friends.

Fielding Tariff Gets in Its Work on the Smoking Public.

A meeting of the grocers and tobacco dealers of the city held a special meeting last night to consider the price of tobacco, as affected by the Fielding tariff.

It was unanimously agreed to raise the price of plug and cut tobacco to meet the tariff increase, as follows:—Five-cent plugs to sell for seven cents, or four for five; ten-cent plugs to sell for twelve cents, or six for five; and ten-cent cut tobacco, 12 cents straight; 25-cent T. & B. to be 30 cents.

The wholesale prices have advanced fourteen cents a pound already under the new tariff.

CONCERT AT ST. JAMES.

Large Audience Listens to the Rendition of a Very Fine Programme.

A large audience filled the St. James' schoolhouse, South London, last evening, on the occasion of a very pleasing concert, kindly arranged for by Miss Smith, with a double bill of vocalists, the enjoyment of the numerous company and the providing of an additional offering for the fund of the church. In both respects was the success very gratifying.

The schoolhouse was beautifully decorated for the occasion. During the evening Ven. Archdeacon Davis made a short address. Following was the programme:—

Piano solo—Valse in A flat—Moszkowski. Mr. Bluthner.

Song—"Where Brooms the Rose"—Miss Bluthner.

Song—"The Longest Journey"—Miss Bluthner.</