Federal the Declining Feature in Local Stocks—Grain Firmer, Produce Steady —Assignments Reported Yesterday — Cox & Co.'s Private Wire Despatch—Montreal Live Stock Markets.

FRIDAY EVENING, Jan. 13.

The stock markets, both at home and abroad, to-day were quiet and showed little activity. The most noticeable feature in local stocks was the drop in Federal, though the market was generally weaker. There was a sagging tendency in the New York market, and stocks closed lower, while London was generally firm though a few stocks were fractionally weaker. The grain and produce markets were quiet, grain was firmer and produce steady.

Transactions on the local stock market this morning were few and several stocks were fractionally weaker. Montreal declined three points to 210 bid and Ontario was wanted at 110. Toronto held lower at 193, with buyers at 190, and Merchants' 1 better in bid at 121. Commerce sold at 109½ and 110, and closed at 109½ bid. Imperial advanced a point to 151 bid and Federal dropped to 99 bid with sellers at 70. Dominion rose ¾ in bid to 209¾, and Standard was 120 bid without sellers. Hamilton wanted at 135 without sellers. British America sold 89½ and Western Assurance held at 130 with 127 bid. Dominion Telegraph 79 bid, and Northwest Land ½ easier at 53 bid. Canada Permanent Loan sold at 200 and Freehold offered at 162 without bids. London and Canadian wanted at 145 and People's at 105 without sellers. Other stocks unchanged.

In the afternoon there was little change in stocks with the exception of Federal, which further declined to 68, with sales at that price and 65, and closed at 66 bid with sellers asking 68. Montreal advanced to 213 and closed at that price, being the same as yesterday. Toronto dropped a point to 189 bid, and Merchants' also was lower with buyers at 120. Commerce sold at 109¾ and closed at 109½ bid, and Dominion sold at 211 and closed at 210 bid. British America sold at 87 and Consumers' Gas sold at 177. Northwest Land ½ better at 53½, and all others unchanged.

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

In Chicago the market opened unchanged for wheat and oats and corn ¼c higher. The market was dull and fluctuations very narrow. Wheat, corn and oats all closed unchanged from last night. Pork opened 10c higher, and lard and ribs 5c and steadily declined with feeble reactions from the opening prices, closing 15c lower on pork, 8½c on lard and ribs.

Cox & Co. received the following despatch from Chicago to-day: Market quiet and barley steady. Foreign reports indicate dullness in both wheat and flour, while the snow fall is looked upon as increased protection, though it may curtail receipts for next few days, but offering not very large. There is less disposition to sell it off. In case of probable large decrease in visible supply, bears prefer to wait until that fact is secured, and then sell it on the bulge. Reported that packing of the west will show decrease for the season equal to product of about 90,000 hogs.
