Watford, Ont., 1923. Strathroy, Feb. 21.—Victor, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Murray, of this town, met with an accident today, and received injuries from which he may die. The little fellow was returning home from school at three o'clock, and at the Caradoc street crossing was watching an east bound freight train pull out on the south track. He was standing close to the north track on which No. I was coming in, and the train struck him before he could get out of the way, throwing him some distance.

When picked up it was found that

LINES IN MEMORY OF LITTLE ROBERTA STYLES.

Our Roberta was our darling, Our pet, our joy, our pride, But early in the morning Of youth, our darling died.

Our hearts they seem nigh breaking, To think that she has gone, And left us here so lonely, To think, to weep, to mourn.

A more Augelic flower Did never bud or bloom, But 'twas not in our power To save her from the tomb.

But we will cease our weeping, For she has gone to rest, Yes, there among the greetings Of angels, she is blest.

Twas God who lent her to us. To cherish, love and keep, Twas God who took her from us, We will not pine and weep.

But we will live, that when we die,
To us it may be given,
To meet our darling, in the skies
And dwell with her in Heaven. why not do as hundreds of thousands of Canadians have done for the past thirty-four years: let SHILOH be your doc-tor whenever a Cough or Cold appears.
