RED CROSS FUND

Report of Annapolis County Chairman - Bridgetown's Splendid Response.

To all Contributors in Annapolis County: I beg to submit herewith a statement of amounts contributed to the Canadian Red Cross Fund as reported by the districts throughout the County.

As all the amounts have not yet been paid in, the Treasurer, Mr. R. V. Arnold, Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Bridgetown, will be unable to make his report until the next issue of this paper.

It is certainly most gratifying and a credit to Annapolis County, that the objective was gained and passed by quite an amount.

I have been requested by the Provincial Executive to transmit to all committees and collectors, who so faithfully carried out this work, their most sincere thanks.

For myself and the executive of this county, who gave me their support, I wish to convey to the District Chairmen and their helpers, whose efforts made the Campaign such a marked success, my grateful appreciation and hearty thanks.

I wish to publicly acknowledge the kindness of Mr. O. S. Dunham, editor of "The Weekly Monitor," who gave so much of his valuable paper, without charge, to advertising and assisting in this drive.

Situated as we are in this peaceful valley, away from the terrible horrors and devastation of this world war, it should not only be our duty, but our privilege to contribute freely of our money and energy in all work, and while there is a great satisfaction in knowing that Annapolis County has responded so nobly to the call from "The Greatest Fund in the World today," following so soon after the Y. M. C. A. Appeal, and while reports from almost all the collectors express the kindly manner in which they were received, it is at the same time, to me, a source of regret that in some few cases the collectors were attributed of receiving a commission for the work they were doing.

I wish here to state that neither myself, as County Chairman or any collector nor anyone throughout Annapolis County, who in any way assisted in the campaign, received, nor will receive one cent of remuneration. I make this statement not on my own account, but at the request of several of the collectors.

The busiest men of Annapolis County have in all these campaigns, given freely of their time, and should at least receive every courtesy from the public.

Again thanking all workers and contributors throughout Annapolis County in behalf of the Canadian Red Cross, I remain, Faithfully yours, HENRY B. HICKS, County Chairman, Bridgetown, N. S., July 23, 1918.

Bridgetown is to be congratulated on its splendid response to the Canadian Red Cross appeal. It certainly went over the top.

The chairman says: In giving a list of contributors, it is just possible that a name or two may be omitted, as there was not time to check the list before furnishing it to the press.
