

Southerly again, represents the Convicts at Botany Bay as going to their huts, at nightfall, travelling lest they should be devoured by the wild beasts. This is a country where there are only poor timid Marsupials, like the Kangaroo & opossum! Is it much wonder that we do not know whether Tasmania or Victoria is the greater Colony, or whether Mr Dibbs or Mr Service is the greater Statesman?

Yours sincerely

G. Monro Grant.
