REMARKS.

1. The Essays to be given into the Secretary of the Professors' Court, on or before the first day of November.
2. The days of Examination to be specified at the opening of the College.
3. The Essays must be correctly and legibly written, with mottoes on the title pages, instead of the names of the authors.
4. Brevity, when consistent with completeness in the particular treatise, perspicuity of style and appropriateness of illustration, will be esteemed an additional excellence. No Essay to occupy more than forty minutes in reading.
5. A student who may have obtained Bursaries Nos. 4, or 11, in any former Session, cannot obtain the corresponding Bursary a second time; though he may compete for it, and if deserving of it, his merit will be noticed.
6. Should the same student be successful in competing for more than one Bursary, his name will be mentioned first in the public statements, but not more than one Bursary will be assigned to him.

By order of Professors' Court.

FOR CHURCHES, ACADEMIES, FACTORIES, STEAMBOATS, ETC., made by the Subscribers, and a large assortment kept constantly on hand, mounted with their newly-improved Iron Yoke, which, by a detached plate, permits the Bell, without taking it from the Yoke, to be turned on its vertical axis any distance however small, or completely round, thus lessening the danger of a fracture from repeated blows of the Clapper in one place. This Yoke also combines the moveable arm by which the Bell may be raised or lowered in its bearing if desired, thus increasing or diminishing the force of the blow. The recent adaptation of Iron Cases, in which they mould all sizes, increases their working facilities, and also enhances the quality of the casting; which improvements, with those of 30 years, during which the establishment has been in operation, have gained for their Bells an unequalled celebrity for volume of sound and quality of tone, and for which they have just received, January 1854, the FIRST PREMIUM at the World's Fair, many from this country and from Europe being in competition, and which is the nineteenth medal they have received. Being located at the junction of R. R., Canal, and River routes, they can ship in any direction at a moment's notice. For further information apply for circular.
