EVERYBODY

THE DAILY MAIL is kept on file, bound up for reference, by Judges, County Clerks, your family should be recorded there. Notices of births, marriages and deaths

READS

BIRTH

should be inserted in THE DAILY MAIL, not alone for the reason that such is the social custom, but also because such notice is a registry of the facts for time to come. The small charge of 50 cents for one insertion of a birth, marriage or death notice should deter no one, and interested parties should see to it that the record is made. Another point that should be borne in mind is this: It is well that some one paper should have all of these notices. THE MAIL now receives nearly every one of them; therefore, when you can afford to insert in only one paper, have it in THE MAIL, for these two reasons:— 1st. Every one else has birth, marriage and death notices in THE MAIL. 2nd. THE MAIL, as before stated, is a perfect perpetual register, easy of access at all times and to all people.

MARRIAGE

DEATH

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE MAIL

THE MAIL now occupies the foremost place in Canadian journalism.—"Halt News."

Among the marvels of journalism. Its prosperity cannot be questioned, and it is a pleasure to say it deserves it.—"Utica (N.Y.) Herald."
