

to think that a Wolfville audience is devoid of musical or artistic judgment or to imagine that the audience fears it will not get its money's worth. Both these reasons are wrong, but whatever the reason may be every piece is encored at all entertainments except at a Seminary closing where some would likely think they might be deservedly; but there alas, no encores are allowed.

Another Acadia Graduate Advanced.

The ATHENÆUM learns with great pleasure of the promotion of Mr. W. I. Moore, of the Class of '94, to the position of President of Clarksburg Baptist College, Missouri. Since graduation Mr. Moore has been very successfully engaged in teaching in the West. The acceptance of the presidency of Clarksburg constitutes Mr. Moore the youngest College President in America.

We have every confidence that the honor will be carried gracefully and the onerous duties performed faithfully and acceptably. It is a matter of sincere pleasure to the friends of Acadia that so many of her graduates, even at an early date in their career, are called to positions of great usefulness and responsibility. This is not only true of many who have gone to various parts of the United States, where they have made the name of Acadia to be held in high repute for breadth and thoroughness of instruction, but also in our own fair Dominion—the best land the sun shines on—graduates of Acadia are taking first places. We need but mention the names of Dr. Wallace, Chancellor of McMaster University, and Rev. C. A. Eaton, M. A., pastor of Bloor St. Baptist Church, Toronto. Acadia wishes them all the splendid success they deserve. To Mr. Moore the ATHENÆUM tenders congratulations upon the new appointment and hopes to hear of a noble work accomplished.
