WOULD hasten
my escape
from the windy
storm and tempest.

Psalm lv. 8.

A man (Jesus)
shall be as an
hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest. Isa. xxxiii. 2.

Rev's J. Salmon and J. McNeil took part in the opening devotional exercises, after which an address of welcome was delivered by the chairman. He was followed by a brief address by Mr. L. C. Peake, upon whom had devolved no small amount of labor and correspondence in the "search for a man," now so happily and satisfactorily concluded. Mr. McCulloch then addressed the Workers, and in a few well chosen words expressed his pleasure in meeting with the brethren, and his hope that their united labors might redound to the glory of God in the salvation of souls. Short addresses were then given by Rev. Dyson Hague, Mr. D. C. Forbes, S. R. Briggs, J. D. Nasmith, Alf. Sandham, and others. A pleasing event of the evening was the presentation to each Active member (by John Macdonald, Esq., 1st Vice-President) of a bound volume of the "Life of George Moore." In the absence of Mr. Macdonald (through illness) Mr. R. Kilgour presented the books. A hearty vote of thanks was passed, after which the pleasant meeting was dismissed with prayer, by Mr. J. O. Anderson.

WELCOME.

LAST Thursday evening the workers and friends of the Association assembled in goodly numbers in the Parlor of the Association to meet with and welcome our new General Secretary, Mr. W. McCulloch. After tea the chair was taken by Hon. S. H. Blake.
