DWELLERS IN GOTHAM. A tale of modern New York.

By ANNAN DALE.

Cloth, - - - $1.25.

Prof. C. T. Winchester, Middletown, Conn., says: "I have read the book, in fact I read it three weeks ago or more, for when I once struck into it, I didn't quit until I had finished it, and I didn't want to. For its interesting, that's the first good thing about it. I assure you I did most heartily enjoy it. It is racy, sparkling, suggestive from cover to cover."

DIANE OF VILLE MARIE. A romance of French Canada.

By BLANCHE L. MACDONELL.

Cloth, - $1.00.

"Miss Macdonell's literary style is good, and the descriptions in which the book abounds combine vividness with finish. She also depicts the many diverse characters with great lucidity. An antique atmosphere pervades "Diane of Ville Marie," which I am sure will be inhaled with delight by everyone interested in the history of old French Canada."—Montreal Herald.

THE BUTTERFLY BOOK.

By W. J. HOLLAND, LL.D.

Cloth, - $3.00.

It discusses the life, history, anatomy, capture, preparation and preservation of specimens, their classification, and books about North American butterflies. It is a masterpiece in its way and will be conceded, by all who are competent to judge, to be unsurpassed, if it can be said to have been equalled by any previous work in its class."

TREVELYAN'S LITTLE DAUGHTERS.

By VIRNA SHEARD.

With Illustrations by Reginald B. Birch.

Cloth, - $1.00.

"Mrs. Sheard's pretty story will be read with a great deal of interest by her many friends. It is one of those stories of children that are not for children alone. The plot is pretty, the people are pretty, so are their ways, words and clothes, as well as the illustrations and binding."—The Westminster.
