

ed over by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor of York, with the Town Clerk, the Medical Officer of Health, and the City Engineer as Local Hon. Secretary.

The chief details of the programme, as carried out, are given below:

Saturday, July 27th.—3 p.m.: Opening of the Health Exhibition in the Exhibition Buildings by H.R.H. Prince Arthur of Connaught, K.G.

Sunday, July 28th.—Special services in the Cathedral and other churches, full particulars of which will be given in the local programme.

Monday, July 29th.—1 p.m.: Reception of members and delegates in the Mansion House by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor. 1.30 p.m.: Public luncheon in the Guildhall (tickets 3s. 6d.). 3 p.m.: Visits to the Minister, St. William's College, King's Manor House, St. Mary's Abbey Ruins, and "The Retreat" Asylum. 8 p.m.: Inaugural address to the Congress in the Festival Concert Hall by the Most Rev. His Grace the Lord Archbishop of York.

Tuesday, July 30th.—10 a.m.: Meetings of Section—(A) Sanitary Science and Preventive Medicine, in the Museum; (C) Domestic Hygiene, in the Exhibition Buildings; Conferences of municipal representatives in the Guildhall, and of Engineers and Surveyors in the Exhibition Buildings. 2.30 p.m.: Steamer excursion to Naburn Locks, the Archbishop's Palace, and visits of inspection to New Earswick model village and other public works. 8 p.m.: Lecture to the Congress in the Festival Concert Hall by Professor Karl Pearson, M.A., LL.B., F.R.S., on "Eugenics and Public Health."

Wednesday, July 31st.—10 a.m.: Meetings of Sections—(A) Sanitary Science and Preventive Medicine, in the Museum; (E) Industrial Hygiene, in the Exhibition Buildings; Conference of Sanitary Inspectors, in the Exhibition Buildings. 2.30 p.m.: Visits of inspection of public works. 2.30 p.m.: Garden party at Messrs. Rowntree's Cocoa Works. 8 p.m.: Conversazione and reception in the Assembly Rooms, at the invitation of the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor of York.

Thursday, August 1st.—8.15 to 9.40 a.m.: National Temperance League breakfast in Assembly Rooms. The President of the League, the Very Rev. the Hon. J.

W. Leigh, D.D., Dean of Hereford, in the chair. Excursions to Ripon and Fountains Abbey, Harrogate and Knaresborough, Richmond Castle (Swaledale), Helmsley and Rievaulx Abbey, Doncaster model colliery villages, Scarborough and Whitby. 7.30 p.m.: Popular lecture in the Festival Concert Hall by Professor H. R. Kenwood, M.B., D.P.H., F.R.S.E., on "The Healthy Home." Councillor J. B. Inglis, Sheriff of York, in the chair.

Friday, August 2nd.—10 a.m.: Meetings of Sections—(B) Engineering and Architecture, in the Museum; (D) Hygiene of Infancy and Childhood, in the Exhibition Buildings; Conference of Medical Officers of Health, in the Exhibition Buildings. 2.30 p.m.: Excursion to Selby Abbey and Gateforth Hall Sanatorium, and visits of inspection of public works and ancient buildings. 3.30 p.m.: Garden party at Grays Court, York, at the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gray. 5.30 p.m.: Organ recital, in the Cathedral. 8 p.m.: Congress dinner, in the Assembly Rooms (tickets 7s. 6d. each). The president, the Most Rev. His Grace the Lord Archbishop of York, in the chair.

Saturday, August 3rd.—10 a.m.: Meetings of Sections—(B) Engineering and Architecture, in the Museum; Conference of Veterinary Inspectors, in the Exhibition Buildings. 1 p.m.: Closing meeting in the City Council Chamber.

The following privileges, which might be advantageously adopted at Congresses in America, were granted to members and delegates on production of their Congress tickets: Free travelling on Corporation tramways; free use of political and other clubs; free use of golf courses of York, Fulford, Knavesmire, and Strensall Clubs; inspection of various institutions and public buildings.

Public Health in Queensland.

The Queensland Health Act Amendment Act of 1911, which was assented to on December 31st, 1911, and a copy of which has been forwarded us from Queensland for notice, contains some clauses so noteworthy that some reference must be made to them. The bulk of the clauses relate to food, but a certain number deal with infectious diseases, and others with such important matters as registration of private hospitals