The Court may, at the request of any party, authorize a language other than French or English to be used.

New text of Article 40.

Cases are brought before the Court, as the case may be, either by $\frac{the}{t}$ notification of the special agreement or by a written application addressed in the Registrar. In either case the subject of the dispute and the contesting parties must be indicated.

The Registrar shall forthwith communicate the application to all concerned.

He shall also notify the Members of the League of Nations through the Secretary-General, and also any States entitled to appear before the Court.

The English text of Article 45 is replaced by the following provision:

The hearing shall be under the control of the President or, if he is unable to preside, of the Vice-President; if neither is able to preside, the senior judge present shall preside.

[There is no change in the French text.]
