

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Biographies and Abstracts .....	5
	Biographies et Sommaires .....	16
1.	Mary Moore , University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario The Functional Relationship Between Non-government Organizations, Civil Society and Humanitarian Efforts .....	28
2.	David Gamache Hutchison , University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta Finding a Niche: NGOs as Peacemakers and Peacebuilders .....	38
3.	Susan Finch , Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario NGO-Military Cooperation in Humanitarian Interventions: The Need for Improved Coordination .....	47
4.	Erin Robinson , Brock University, St. Catharines, Ontario The Need of a Military Presence to Support NGOs and Civil Society in Providing Human Security in Civil War and Post-Civil War States .....	60
5.	Jennifer Ross , Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario The DART and Civil-Military Cooperation in Humanitarian Interventions .....	71
6.	Vanessa Pelland , Université du Québec à Montréal, Québec Implications théoriques des opérations dites humanitaires: quels rôles pour l'ONU et l'OTAN? .....	88
7.	France Gaudreault , Université Laval, Québec La sécurité humaine et la société civile: la politique canadienne de contrôle des armes légères. .....	110
8.	Gillian Frost , McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario Not for Profit: Multinational Corporations and Human Rights .....	127
9.	Christopher Spearin , University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC NGOs, PMCs, and Creating the Humanitarian Space - A Specific Response to "Mean Times" .....	141