

5. In order to obtain better information concerning the stocks of albacore tuna that migrate off the west coasts of the United States and Canada, each vessel engaged in fishing pursuant to this Treaty is required to provide to its government statistics and other scientific information on its operations in the EEZ of the other Party. Each Party shall provide to the other Party such information and in particular the amount (weight) and a sampling of biological data of albacore tuna caught by its vessels in the EEZ of the other Party. Each Party shall provide this information on an annual basis at least 30 days prior to the annual consultations referred to in paragraph 6. The Parties shall decide on other specific information to be provided, as well as the forms and procedures for providing such information.

6. The Parties shall consult annually, inter alia, to:

- (a) discuss data and information exchanged on albacore tuna fisheries under paragraph 5; and
- (b) exchange information on their respective conservation and management measures for albacore tuna and on implementation of internationally agreed conservation and management measures applicable to the Parties related to fisheries covered under this Treaty.

7. Each Party shall also notify the other of the conservation and management laws and regulations applicable to vessels fishing in its EEZ pursuant to Article I(b) of this Treaty.”

“ANNEX C

1. Each Party agrees to limit fishing by its respective vessels engaged in fishing for albacore tuna in the EEZ of the other Party, which is defined in Article I(b) of this Treaty, in accordance with the limitation regime (the “Regime”) below. The Regime is defined to include the “fishing seasons” as set out in paragraph 2 and the “port access seasons” as set out in paragraph 3.

2. During the term of the Regime, a “fishing season” is defined as the period of fishing.

3. During the term of the Regime, a “port access season” is defined as the period in which fishing vessels fishing pursuant to this Treaty are authorized to enter the Canadian or American ports as listed in Annex B of this Treaty.
