

CANADA

Communication

No. 24

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
APRIL 24, 1970

In April 1969, the Government of Canada and the Government of the United States of America entered into an Agreement concerning fishing activities in the waters of the other country. The Agreement provides for annual meetings to discuss the implementation of the Agreement and for a Joint Commission to oversee the Agreement. The Agreement is signed by the Prime Minister of Canada and the President of the United States.

The Agreement provides for the following: (a) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (b) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (c) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (d) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year.

CANADA-U.S.A. RECIPROCAL
FISHING AGREEMENT

The Agreement provides for the following: (a) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (b) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (c) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (d) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year.

The Agreement provides for the following: (a) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (b) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (c) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (d) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year.

The Agreement provides for the following: (a) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (b) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (c) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (d) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year.

The Agreement provides for the following: (a) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (b) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (c) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (d) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year.

The Agreement provides for the following: (a) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (b) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (c) The Government of Canada agrees to provide the Government of the United States of America with a quota of 100,000 fish per year. (d) The Government of the United States of America agrees to provide the Government of Canada with a quota of 100,000 fish per year.

DEPARTMENT OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES EXTÉRIEURES