

Mr. KNOWLES: I am not going to discuss it. You misunderstood me, Mr. Chairman. The hon. member for Portage la Prairie (Mr. Meighen) interrupted me in order to ask a question, and when he had finished I was going to answer it. You gave your ruling. He had no right to interrupt me, and, because he interrupted me, I have the gag in my mouth and am shut off from expressing my opinion.

Some hon. MEMBERS: Choke it down.

The CHAIRMAN: Does the hon. member appeal from my ruling?

Mr. KNOWLES: Yes. I submit that we are not on clause 4.

Mr. GAUVREAU: We have all summer for it.

Mr. Speaker having resumed the Chair, the Chairman reported:

The House was in committee on clause 4. Mr. Knowles raised a point of order that the committee is not regularly on clause 4 but on clause 3. The Chairman ruled that the committee is on clause 4, clause 3, having been duly and regularly postponed by motion last night. Mr. Knowles appeals from the ruling of the Chair.

House divided on the question: shall the ruling of the Chair be confirmed?
