

and used as official languages, and that suffices us. As to the rest we repeat that we simply wish that the French language shall be PROPERLY treated in all parts of the country for there is not a single corner of Canada where it does not possess acquired and indefeasable rights to existence."

---