LEAFS AND GIANTS CLASH WEDNESDAY

Outfielder Wilson Joins Kelley's Squad at Marlin -A Line on T. Jordan.

MARLIN, Tex., March 22 .- Outfielder Dallas Club for some time, was the only new man to join Kelley's squad here. The absentees are expected by the late train tonight. The players started taking oaths today and will have their first practice on Monday morning. The weather is delightful with a bracing breeze, and the squad are all anxious to start work. Manager Kelley stayed over with the the squad are all anxious to start work. Manager Kelley stayed over with the Giants in Dallas, who played in Dallas today; and expects to complete the deal for Bunny Hearne, who did not arrive for the Sunday game.

Tim Jordan is in splendid shape, and will likely remain with the Giants until they take their final departure from here on Wednesday next. He will then Join the Leafs. McGraw declares the big fellow has shaken off several of his years and should this season play up to the form that made him such a valuable man to the Leafs a couple of years ago. Toronto will work out on the old ball field three blocks from the hotel until Wednesday, when they take possession of the Giants' field, a half mile from the present headquarters. There may be a slight change in the training trip games, but details are not complete. A game with New York is booked for Wednesday. The probabilities are for continued fine weather, and present facilities and conditions is all that is needed to soon send the team away in mid-season shape.

Pick is the only Leaf who has not wintered well. He is still under the weather, but the indisposition is nothing that a few days here should not remedy. As to the remainder, if appearances and statements are not deceptive, they are in such condition that Trainer Daly will have an easy time with them. The half-dozen yet to report are expected on Monday, with Kelley from Dallas. The program calls for morning and afternoon practice, starting on Monday.

The Feds have been flirting with Catcher Kelly, but he has told them he will live up to the Toronto contract, which is, by the way, one calling for a salary that exceeds the proverblal sky limit. He is anxious now to stay with Toronto, and with Snell and the other newcomers; is quite content with existing conditions.

Powers advised his father that he has just renewed his contract with Trainer Garrett for a term of three years, at an annual salary of $26,000, and a bonus for each mount that proved a winner. Powers left here three years ago to ride in France, and had a high record for riding winners last season. He lived on a farm near this town, and rode his first race on the fair grounds.

The total receipts were said to be over $38,000.

Jeannette had the advantage at start of the contest and in the early rounds, which were marked by continuous infighting. Carpentler put up a fine defence, and several of the rounds ended in his favor.

The American, who had a triffe more weight than his opponent, landed heavily a number of times, his blows staggering the Frenchman, and as it appeared at the end of the fight that Jeannette had been the more aggressive the referee gave him the decision.

The fans cheered the efforts of Carpentier, who is the idol of French sportsment over his defeat.

Joe Jeannette is an American negro. He was born in 1881, and has been boxing for about ten years. He has long had his eye on the heavyweight championship, and with the possible exception of Sam Langford is rated as Jack Johnson's strongest rival. He has met the champior several times and has won a decision over him on a foul.

Jeannette has met the best men in the champior several times and has won a decision over him on a foul.

Jeannette has met the best men in the world in his class with great success. He has lost decisions to Johnson, Langford of he champion at one time or another. His victory over the French champion is no surprise to the boxing enthusiasts. Carpentier, altho the heavyweight champion of Ehrope, has been defeated several times by American boxers. Both Frank Klaus and Billy Fapke stopped him inside of twenty rounds.
