By a Staff Reporter.

HAMILTON, July 21.—Appealing for recruits to enlist for overseas service, Rev. Geo. Williams, chaplain of Niagara camp, told the Canadian Club members last night that the voluntary system of recruiting was proving a failure and that last night that the voluntary system of recruiting was proving a failure and that altho a Britisher was as good as one man of any other nationality, it was folly to suppose that he was as good with one gun as two other men were with three guns, which is the state of affairs the empire is facing at present. He urged that no single man who was qualified to go should be allowed to stay at home in a position.

William Crowthall, also a county constable, was arraigned on a charge of complicity.

Barnes, in his statement before the magistrate, said that on the evening of July 10 he was at Long Branch Park, having gone with half a dozen friends. While there he met a lady friend, and on walking down to the lake forcet with the control of t a position.
The services of women and elderly men should be utilized, he argued, to take the places of the young men who should shoulder a rifle and take their places in the firing line.

Men Should Choose.

Rev. Mr. Williams declared that the onus should not be placed on the women. because their relatives did not go, and that a man did not need to be urged by his mother or wife to take up arms. He said that women should have the privilege of dissent, but that men should not take advantage of reluctance on the part of relatives. take advantage of reluctance on the part of relatives.

So forceful was Rev. Mr. Williams' speech that a resolution was passed by the members of the Canadian Club asking Col. W. A. Logie to allow him to discontinue his duties as chaplain or Niagara camp so that he could address meetings thruout Ontario in the interests of recruiting.

A Tobacco Appeal.

Arthur Private of the Overseas Club of London, England, said that there was a great deal of conflicting of efforts in sending tobacco to the solulers. He estimated that Canadians should effect a saving to from half a million to $600,000 if they sent all the tobacco thru a central agency such as the Overseas Club. An appeal was made by him for Canadians to concentrate their efforts so that there would not be any overlapping.

Col. Acheson of Niagara Camp and George C. Coppley, who recently returned from England, also spoke briefly. Norman Slater presided at the meeting, which was held in the Robinson tearooms.

Alderman Geo. Halcrow, the labor representative in the city council from Ward Five, contends that the principle of discharging unmarried men laborers of discharging unmarried men laborers from the service and failing to carry this from the service and failing to carry this rule right thru every department is an injustice. It is likely that he will bring this matter up at the next council meeting, and he has been promised the support of other members. Some of the laborers discharged have been found to be physically unfit and they are now laborers discharged have been found to be physically unfit, and they are now out of employment. This condition of affairs has attracted adverse comment.

L. O. Buist asked permission of the controllers to extend his factory on South Emerald street, following the refusal of council a year ago to consent to the extension. He was advised by the board of control to circulate another petition.
