
TO THE
R E A D E R.

THE first Settlement of most of our Colonies in America was made by private Adventurers, who, finding their Undertakings too expensive and unwieldy, abandoned or dropt the same; and so most of them reverted back again into the Hands of the Crown.

The laudable Genius of our Merchants, in generously encourag-
B ing