Government Inspector Fisher has returned to the east via Windsor, after an extended trip through the southern part of Essex county gathering data for an extensive report on the San Jose plague. He secured numerous specimens of this plague in its various stages. He reports the fruit trees to date as in an uninjured condition by the late frigid wave, noticing but a few trees that seemed to be affected, and he felt assured that if no further cold snaps came they will be all right.

FORMER LONDONER WEDS. The St. Thomas Times thus chronicles the marriage of a former Londoner to an estimable young lady. Very many friends of the groom in this city will wish him and his helpmeet long life and much happiness in the new sphere upon which they have entered: "A quiet wedding took place in Trinity Church at 10 o'clock this morning when Mr. James S. Brierley, proprietor of the Journal and Montreal Herald, was united in marriage to Miss Alice Gossage, daughter of Col. B. W. Gossage, of this city. Rev. Canon Hill performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Brier-ley left on a wedding trip to Toronto. Miss Eleanor Brierley, sister of the groom, acted as maid of honor. The bride was becomingly attired and the ceremony was witnessed by a large number of persons."
