FATAL MISTAKE.

Mrs. P. Downey, of Guelph, Dies Under Distressing Circumstances. Guelph, Feb. 1.-Mrs. P. Downey, of the Herald, died suddenly in Ren-frew on Sunday. She had gone there to nurse her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Collins, who was taken seriously ill some time ago. Mrs. Downey, who was not very strong at the best, then took sick. Last Monday she took by mistake a dose from a bottle of liniment, instead of the tonic which she was using, and her system, in her weakened condition, could not throw off the poison. The deceased was well known in the city and Puslinch township, and was much respected. The remains arrived home last evening.

Mrs. Brill, wife of Mr. J. T. Brill, the well-known cheese dealer, died early on Sunday morning. She was known to be ailing, but her death was unexpected. RYERSON OUT OF IT.

Hamilton, Feb. 1.-Gen. Booth, of the Salvation Army, arrived in Hamilton yesterday and was met by the Salvation Army band, the local officers and members of the army and many prominent citizens. There were also some hundreds of citizens at the station to see him and give him a friendly cheer. Last evening, in Centenary Church, Gen. Booth addressed a large audience on the subject of his life's

20 BELOW ZERO. Toronto, Feb. 1.-The weather outlook for Southern Ontario tonight is the coldest weather with one exception possibly for 40 years. This morning in Toronto it is blustery snow and from 8 to 11 degrees below zero. Tonight the observatory officials say it will be almost 20 below zero. This is only equaled twice in the records of the observatory-Jan. 10, 1890, when the thermometer went down to 26 below, and Feb. 6, 1895, when it touched 21. Along the north shore and Quebec and the Maritime Provinces it is intensely cold today, but mild in the Northwest, it being two degrees above. Storms are prevailing in the east, and

When he quit work at noon yesterday the checkers and shedmen waited on him and presented him with a pipe case, containing a meerschaum pipe, a silvermounted briar pipe, and a beautifully bound volume on the life of the Queen. The presentation was made on behalf of the men by Mr. R. Brown, foreman of the freight sheds, who took advantage of the occasion to express the regret of all at Mr. Rogerson's departure and a hope for his success in his new position. Mr. Rogerson replied in a few well-chosen remarks, thanking his fellow-employes heartily for their kindness.-Toronto Mail and Empire.

YOUR MONEY IS YOUR OWN

But no use wasting it. You're going to buy a Suit or Overcoat, perhaps buy both. I have told you my story many times, but it will bear repeating. Clothes of the best, cut by artistic cutters, sewed by skilled tailors, and finished as only good tailors can finish garments. Prices right. Look over cur stock; if it does not appeal to you don't buy.
