FIUME SITUATION IS STILL IN CONTROL OF POET D'ANNUNZIO

Left.

Geneva. Sept. 17.—Gabriele D'Annunzio is still master of the situation at Fiume, of which he took possession recently at the head of insurgent Italian Government's order to return with his troops, according to advices which have reached here despite the extreme rigor of the censorship which has been set up regarding the Fiume developments. The British and American contingents in the city were jeered and hissed by the population as they marched to their warships, the advices state, but embarked safely on their vessels without further incident. The French contingent is said to have remained in Fiume barricaded in its barracks.

Paris, Sept. 17.—The president of the Ukrainian delegation to the peace conference has written to M. Clemenceau, president of the conference, protesting against attacks by Gen. Denikine's volunteers upon the Ukrainian army, which was in pursuit of Bolshevik forces fleeing after the recent capture of Kiev. The letter says that Gen. Denikine is "making use of entente assistance which was intended to enable him to fight the Bolsheviki, to penetrate Ukrainian territory with the object of re-establishment of the Russian Empire." It also declares that the attack on the Ukrainian army permitted the fleeing Bolsheviki to make their escape.
