Aldermanic Contests In Each Ward To Be Lively

Sixty Nominated For Twelve Seats on Council-Ward One Ratepayers Propose 23 Names of Men They Would Like To See in Field- Must Qualify Tonight.

Lively aldermanic contests in each good account of themselves.

Following are the nominations in the various wards: of the four city wards are now certain, s the result of nomirations last night A total of 60 candidates has been placed in the field. Ward 1 leads the ist with 23. Ward 4 comes next with 16 Ward 2 had 14 and Ward 3 only

The candidates must qualify by 3 clock tonight. City Clerk Baker's of-ses will be open turing the regular pure, and from 7 until 3 o'clock in the evening. Of the candidates nominated at noon, H. B. Ashplant has qualified for the mayoralty contest, and Harry Hayman, Mrs. Hunt and W. T. Clark for the board of education.

Ward 1 had one of the biggest nomination meetings in the blotzers to lear ination meetings in its history, no less than 23 candidates being named for the three aldermanic offices. Of the present representatives, Aldermen E. R. Seabrook and B. F. Brighton present representatives, Aldermen E. R. Seabrook and B. F. Brighton were renominated, and a number of others who have had previous municipal experience were named. These include Dr. L. S. Holmes, P. J. Watt and F. G. Mitchell Other prominent nominees were John R. Minhinnick, George Wenige, A. B. Greer and Thos. Walsh. F. C. Wanless was the only nominee of the labor representation committee. The meeting was held in the Simcoe street school, with J. W. McCallum presiding.

Three "Wilsons"?

Ward 2 also brought out a good lineup, fourteen in all. Its present representatives, Ald. Harley. J. Cameron Wilson and W. A. Wilson were renominated. William Tite, who ran in this ward last year, was named once more. Moses Wilson, 193 Wharncliffe road, and William Wilson. 222 Wharncliffe road, were other nominees, which opens the possibility of this ward being represented next year by three "Wilson," Martin O'Sullivan presided at the meeting, which was held in the Talbot street school.

Ward 3 had the quietest ssion of* school.

Ward 3 had the quietest ssion of all, only seven nominations being made. These included the three present representatives, Ald. G. B. Drake, W. J. Ashton and Frederick W. Watkinson. The meeting was held in the East London Hall and presided over by Stephen Grant.

don Hall and presided over by Stephen Grant.

Ward 4 nominations were held in the city hall with City Clerk Baker presiding. Sixteen names were placed on the list. Ald. John Bridge and C. G. Moorhead, the present representatives of the ward, were renominated. Ald. Harry Wheatcroft was the third alderman for this ward. He removed to Cleveland, early this year. Several of the nominees in this ward have been in the field before and should give a

SUNDAY SCHOOL HOLDS XMAS ENTERTAINMENT

Dundas Centre Methodist Church Sunday School, that numbers about 600 scholars, Tuesday night held their annual Christmas entertainment in the schoolroom, when the superintendent, Mr. C. E. German, occupied the chair pure air of the Adirondacks. and was master of ceremonies. Diaand was master of ceremonies. Dialogues, recitations and musical numbers were ably contributed by individual classes. The Nikators, with their college yells, interspersed the program and enlivened the proceedings materially. The ministrel performance put on by Dr. Gordon's burnt cork artists deserve special mention for their wit and humor; in fact, all the program was carried out in an able manner, from the youngest in the primary to the adult in the senior class, including the Chinese numbers.

This soothing vapor is full of germ-destroying substances, and at the same time is a powerful, healing agent. It is sent to the bronchlal tubes and lungs through a skillfully devised inhaler that can be carried in the vest pecket. Simplicity itself is the keynote of this splendid treatment.

CATARRHOZONE is the name of this wonderful invention that is daily curing chronic cases of weak throat, bronchitis and catarrh. Every breath

The hearth scene lent a little romance that was characteristic of bygone days, the glint of the open fireplace making an ideal Christmas presentation with its numerously filled stockings hanging close by. Even the two little waifs that happened along sought shelter beside its coziness were loath to leave it.

The appearance of Santa Claus was a signal for much ado and a right merry time he had distributing goodies to the little ones.

That the entertainment was not a selfish one was marked by the generosity of every scholar who, besides contributing to the program, also brought freely of the necessities of life in the way of vegetables, fruit and candies. In many cases donations of money were given to be spent judiciously for the poor. Miss Bella Brown deserves mention for the success of the evening.
