Note and Comment

They curled pretty generally up to expectations on opening day of the Tankard finals. The new frost rule almost played a part and while there was the necessary frigidity at 2 o'clock for the start of the first round, the leading gless curlets were having the looking glass curlers were having their worries before the 18th end was over around six o'clock.

Fortunately colder weather is promised for to-day, otherwise our friends from Lindsay, Grand Rapids and Strat-ford would be in an awkward predicament with a rest of any number of days before them until Jack Frost would come round with his necessary

J. D. Flavelle's protest against the innovation at the semi-annual meeting was none too strong and the best thing to do at the October gathering is to rescind the rule. Unless, however, with the assimilation of the pinochle players and some lady curlers who have taken up the game in Montreal there may be an excuse for the frost rule.

Lindsay v. Granites and Grand Rapids v. Stratford come together this morning, of course, if there are two degrees of frost. George Little pulled Lindsay thru yesterday by his accurate play, especially in the Gait game. He changed end after end against McAuslan, and the slight of stature, kept up his good work on the soft ice at the close.

Lalonde has written to Con Jones of Vancouver, stating that he will be back on the job in Vancouver early in the spring, so the eastern clubs don't appear to have very much chance of landing the Vancouver star. Newsy pulled down big money by playing lacrosse in the west last year, and he realizes that this is about the only lacrosse town along the line that can afford to offer good inducements.

Messrs, J. A. MacPherson, president, and W. Hilton, secretary, will repre-sent the Canadian Football Associaheld in Hamilton next Saturday for the purpose of organizing a division in that district. It's the intention of these soccer magnates to thoroorganize strong divisions thruout the whole of civilized Canada.

With his new made bride, the playmate of his youth, John L. Sullivan sailed this week for Ireland and England and possibly the continent, and crowd of friends bade John voyage" as the steamer started down Boston harbor Monday. Jake Kilrain and Manager Hall accompany the big fellow, and the trip looks like an assured financial success, according to Hall. Billy was down in Montreal last week for the league meeting, and on his return to Buffalo said: "I saw my first hockey game while in Montreal, and, take it from me, that is some game. It's the fastest sport I ever saw in my life. To play that game as those canucks play it, a man must be as atrong as a bull and as fast as chain lightning. If lacrosse in that city is as fast as hockey, I don't blame those Canucks for not going crazy over base-ball, unless they get the grand old game as it should be played."

Melvin Sheppard, the crack middle-distance runner of the Irish-American A.C., who is under suspension by the Military Athletic League, pending a final hearing Feb. 10, came out yesterday in denial of the story published to the effect that he was contemplating turning professional in the event of an adverse decision. Sheppard said he never had any intention of turning professional, and that he values his amateur standing highly.

Galt a by Parkdale made T,A.A.C. look like unch of selling platers last night in their Parkdale had all the better of the play, they constantly being in T.A.A.C. territory, and had fully lifteen shots to their opponents' one. T.A.A.C. acted as if they were both stale and disorganized, but it is doubtful even if they had been in their regular form that they would have taken the measure of the paddlers last night, for Parkdale had them faded at all stages, their close checking having T. A. A. C. on the oftensive all the time.

The game was a rough one, Referee Pick Line imposing no less than twenty-two penalties, in which T.A.A.C. were the chief oftenders. McArthur was off in the first half for cross-checking kyle into the boards, and with him doing service Parkdale rammed in three goals. In the last half, just before time, Allen and Kyle had a mix-up, both resorting to the manly art. Needless to say, they were banished the trouble by slashing kyle around the legs.
