Democrats Have 138 Members, as Compared With 190 at Present.

New York, Nov. 5.—Congressional elections in three districts tonight had not been officially reported and with the uncertain trend that has the British interests may be held to extend to any or all the remaining parts of the Turkish empire.

It is noted also that while the agreement does not take the form of an alliance, it nevertheless pleages the contracting powers to "render diplomatic support to each other remaining that is the contracting powers to "render diplomatic support to each other remaining that is taken place in the fourth and eighth districts of Tennessee, the Republicans as still have a chance of adding to their record majority in the new thouse the contracting powers to "render diplomatic support to each other remaining that is taken place in the fourth and eighth districts of Tennessee, the Republicans as still have a chance of adding to their record majority in the new there.

reported the Republicans have elect-ed 290, and the Democrats 138, including the two Tennessee seats which tonight were placed in the doubtful column. The others elected include one Socialist, one Independent, one Prohibitionist and one independent Republican.

Thus, the Republicans with 290 members as compared with 232 in the present congress, have made a net gain of 58 members by invading many Democratic districts and fill-ing some vacancies, while the Democrats, with 138 members as compared with 190 in the present congress, have suffered a loss of. 5. The miscellaneous representation of four, is the same numerically as that of the present congress.

London, Nov. 5.—In a speech at Cardiff, Wales, tonight, former Premier Asquith declared that evidence that servants of the crown were being allowed, with virtual impunity, to engage in a campaign of organized outrage was overwhelming and irresistible. An appeal to parliament, he said, was useless.

FARMERS ARE ARMING.
