The I. O. F. and the Old Members. To the Editor of The Advertiser: Will you allow me to make a few marks in references to the outrage on the membership of the I. O. F.?

As the time is now near at hand when the Supreme Court of the I. O. F. meets to consider the question of raising the assessments of members who joined the Judge Hardy yesterday gave his decision that picketing by strikers is legal, provided no interference is narks in reference thereto.

It has never before been found neces-

In view of occupying the first section of our new premises by the end of the coming month, the problem of moving must now engage our minds.

The difficulty of this is increased, as our new store fixtures will not be ready until the second section is completed, which necessitates our moving stock, shelving and

For the above reason, the next few weeks will be crowded full of interest for the shoppers of this city and vicinity, and we are planning to turn everything possible into money, to make reorganization as easy as possible. While the lowered prices mentioned here for these BLACK DRESS GOODS tomorrow, also many that will follow, and others which will never appear in the newspapers, will appeal strongly, we would remind you. that all are of our HIGH STANDARD QUALITY and REGULAR STOCK.

No part of any of the offerings during the next few weeks have been bought for special sale purposes, but because of the ENTIRE CHANGE, MOVING, and REOR-GANIZATION, it is imperative that all stocks must be reduced to the lowest possible basis, therefore, where stocks are heavy, goods will be PRICED EXTREMELY LOW. The next few weeks will be in the history of this store's business A MONEY-SAVING TIME, as we have concluded it will be easier to carry the money than move the goods into our new store.
