

THOROLD AND BEAVERDAMS HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

On Tuesday evening, June 5th, 1894, nearly twenty people assembled in the Town Hall of Thorold to discuss the advisability of forming a local Historical Society, as Thorold occupies the site of the Battle of Beechwood, and is adjacent to that of the Battle of Beaverdams—important factors in the war of 1812-14.

It was decided by motion that a Society be organized under the name "The Thorold and Beaverdams Historical Society."
