Four Hundred on Roll of Local Patriotic Fund

12

Some $6,500 Paid Out This Month-Benefits Not to Apply to Volunteers Married After Enlisting

A Montreal despatch contains notice that in future names of volunteers mar-ried after the husbands enlist, will not share in the separation allowance or in the distribution of the patriotic fund. For some time this has been expected in the militia, in fact in some cases the names of taose so married were not en-tered upon the books of the patriotic fund committee, as it was not thought that the circumstances demanded it. No official intimation has been re-ceived by C. B. Allan, secretary treas-urer of the local branch of the fund, from Ottawa, regarding the matter. He said today that there had been only four Ingraham last evening, when friends gathered at the home of H. T. Ward, Summer street, to tender him their best wishes. Mr. Ingraham, who has been on the staff of the local post office for some time, will be a member of the Army Postal Corps with the second con-tingent, having received his appointment a short time ago. During the evening a handsome military wrist watch was presented to Mr. Ingraham. The pre-sentation was made by John T. Nuttall who, in a short but interesting speech, spoke of the esteem in which Mr. Ingra-ham is held, and wished him a safe re-urn.
