BORN IN A FORD

New York, July 2.—Henry Ford Motors may be chosen as the name of the baby son of Policeman and Mrs. Patrick Mahoney. They made a mad dash for "river" to reach a hospital in time but the work was the race, and Mrs. Mahoney gave birth to the boy before the hospital was reached.

SOME FOWL FREAKS

London, Eng., July 2.—A four-legged chicken was hatched at Saffron Walden. Two legs were removed and the bird is now running about. A three-legged chicken was hatched at Orpington. The third leg is in the vicinity of the tail. The chicken is healthy and doing well.

BOYCOTT ON SHOES

East Orange, N. J., July 2.—A scheme to lower at least one phase of the high cost of living has been devised by Charles Steele, an insurance broker. He is trying to have the children of East Orange declare a boycott on shoes by going barefoot during the summer. He believes this will bring down the price of shoes.

CARE OF THE CHILDREN

Kitchener Telegraph: Children's bureau have been established in many of the progressive cities of Canada, and the investigations show that large numbers of babies die because of the lack of skilled care and nursing, and whenever this is made available, there are marked reductions in the rate of infant mortality. Up to the present there has not been a children's bureau organized in this city, but the time is rapidly approaching when greater care must be taken of the babies, and opportunities afforded for mothers to gain information that will assist them to give the proper attention to infants. It is rightly maintained that nothing pays a city better than the welfare work carried on among the children of the community.

HAD PICNIC

The Old Country Club held their first annual picnic at Morna yesterday on the beach kindly loaned by Mr. and Mrs. McPherson. A very enjoyable time was spent with more than fifty members present.

MRS. J. M. CRAIG, of Los Angeles, Calif., who says no one can feel more grateful for what Tanlac has done than she does. Declares she has gained twelve pounds and health is now better than in years.

"Of all the people who have taken Tanlac, I don't believe there is anyone who feels any more grateful to it than I do," was the statement made recently by Mrs. J. M. Craig, of 674 1-2 East Fortieth street, Los Angeles. "Like so many other families during the influenza epidemic last year we all had it, and my own illness, together with the worry over the rest of our family, brought on a case of genuine nervous prostration. "I was so weak I couldn't even sweep the floor, and during the day I would have to lie down four or five times. I tried to walk but found out half a block was all I could stand before I gave out. Nervous spells came on me often. "Every medicine I tried failed to reach my case until finally my husband urged me to try Tanlac, and I am indeed thankful that he did, for it proved to be just what I needed. "The first two bottles didn't seem to help me. I guess that was because I was so extremely bad off, but on the third bottle I could tell I was improving and that gave me more hopes than ever. "My improvement from then on was rapid and by the time I had taken five bottles of Tanlac I was better and stronger than I had been in years. I was sleeping soundly at night and gained twelve pounds in weight. "That was several months ago and from then until now I have been in as good health as I ever was in my life and have been doing all the housework by hand. "It is simply remarkable how Tanlac has built me up and I have told every one my friends and relatives what a wonderful medicine it is. "Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro, by G. W. McKay, Beaver Harbor; Willard J. Colwell, Evans; C. V. Parsons, Highland; John F. Meagher, Debec; O. D. Hanson, L'Anse-au-Loup; Leonard, Leonardville; N. H. Johnson, Clarendon Station, and by the leading druggists in every town.—(Advt.)

HAS LEARNED TO SPEAK ENGLISH IN A MONTH

London, July 2.—Leonid Krassin, business agent of Lenin, has won a $125 bet by learning to speak English in one month. When he arrived in London Krassin was told by the manager of his hotel that English was a very difficult language to learn. He immediately backed with a bet his conviction that he could pick it up in one month. The hotel manager agreed that the Russian had won when the latter, at the end of the thirty days, discussed English sports with him for a quarter of an hour.

FIND NEW COPPER FIELD

Ten Rounds

MARINE NOTES

J. Willard Smith of this city has received word that the schooner C. Maud Gaskill, Captain Granville, has arrived at Yarmouth with a cargo of coal from New York. The Gaskill touched bottom while passing over the shoals, southeast of Cape Cod, but was refloated in a short time without sustaining any damage.

The new schooner J. L. Ralston, Captain Wasson, is also at Yarmouth with coal. She left New York on June 21 and when passing through the narrows of New York harbor was struck by a terrific squall. She lost several sails and narrowly escaped destruction. The captain was obliged to return to New York for repairs.

SUGAR BILLED IN CHICAGO AT NINE CENTS

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Chicago, July 1.—Shipments of between four million and five million pounds of sugar which are now being received in Chicago by way of Canada were billed to packers, canners and wholesalers at as low as nine and nine and one-half cents a pound, federal investigators said today.

The United States District Attorney's office said that an investigation would be started to determine if evidence of profiteering existed. Wholesalers and other large users were generally reported to be paying twenty-five to twenty-seven and one-half cents per pound for sugar with the retail price hovering around thirty cents.

"PARSON" DAVIES DEAD IN VIRGINIA

Prominent Sporting Man Who Managed John L. Sullivan and Brought Out Peter Jackson.

Word of Charles Edward ("Parson") Davies, well known in the sporting world, died at Bedford, Va., on June 28. The funeral will be in Chicago. "Parson" Davies was born in Antrim, Ireland on July 7, 1852. He was 9 years old when he was brought to New York with his brothers and sisters by their parents. He remained in New York until he was 19 years old and his parents tried to have him become a priest, but he would not do so. Before he was 21 he and his brother went to Chicago and soon after entered the liquor business. Then he blossomed out as a manager. He first took John Ewins, a walker, in hand. Then he went into partnership with Dan O'Leary. The "Parson" later quit the walkers and took up the wrestlers. He managed many of the prominent mat artists. He later shifted to the fighters, Jack Burke, the "Irish lad," being the first scrapper he managed. He later managed the great Peter Jackson of Australia. Davies also was manager at one time of Jack Ashton, John J. Sullivan, Joe Chynski and Bob Armstrong. He organized an Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, and Jackson played Uncle Tom, while Davies acted as the lawyer and auctioneer. He was a man of great nerve and was very popular. He was never married. He was once worth $200,000 and was extremely generous with his money. In 1905 he was stricken with paralysis, and had been a sick man ever since. It was in his capacity as manager of the famous walker, Dan O'Leary, that he gained the title of "The Parson." The late W. H. Vanderbilt occupied a box in Madison Square Garden, Davies, who had O'Leary in the race, was out on the track attending to and encouraging his man. The clean-cut, classical features, quiet demeanor and excellent taste with which Davies was dressed attracted the attention of the millionaire, and he asked who Davies was. The name stuck to Davies ever after wards.

What Will People Say?

To a certain extent we are always subject to the critical eye of the public. What more noticeable than an ill-dressed man? A man's character can often be read by the way he dresses.

He doesn't have to dress extravagantly, but he can dress correctly — by having his clothes tailored-to-order at Gilmour's. Or by purchasing 20th Century Clothes or their other good ready tailored makes. There he is assured of good fabrics, correct styles, masterly tailoring — and genuine economy.

Suits to order, from $55. Suits, ready tailored, $30 to $75.
