

St. Andrew's W.F.M.A. Report

FOR 1894.

In presenting our Annual Report we do so with feelings of gratitude to God for all His goodness to us during the year now closing. We trust our efforts have been a means of grace to ourselves in leading us to a higher spiritual life, as well as a blessing to our perishing sisters in heathen lands, to whom we have been enabled to send the Gospel of Christ. Meetings have been held regularly every month. It has been the aim of the Society to make them as pleasant and instructive as possible. Besides devotional exercises, missionary intelligence is received fresh from the field, the work is discussed, and extracts on subjects of interest are frequently read. Through the missionary letters in the "Leaflet" we are kept in touch with the work in India and China, in the North-West and the Islands of the Pacific, we become acquainted with the workers individually, and in some means share in the joys and sorrows of our far-away sisters. We sincerely regret that so many of the women of our church should, by their absence, have failed to enjoy or benefit by the information given, or the words spoken at these meetings. Our membership is forty-five, average attendance twenty—a small number out of so large a congregation. In response to an appeal for help for the North-West, clothing and furnishings, valued at $113.60, were sent to the school at Regina. We are pleased to note that this particular branch of
