Independent, Labor Party of Ottaw

A WEEKLY NEWS LETTER.

FOREWARNED—FOREARMED

RESIDENT Tom Moore, of the Trades and Labor Congress, struck the trail this week for New York to take passage for Paris, France, where he will attend the sessions of the newly created Labor Board. Heeding warning to all travellers to Paris, it was stated that he had equipped himself with a tent and blanket, to make sure of accommodation. Both articles of equipment are of sensible color, of practical nature, in keeping with the trade unionists' policy, the red being in the tabooed class, lest any misunderstanding should arise in the part of the old world where he is not as well known as in the Dominion. No red for Tom, save in the blood, which is of the healthful kind.
