People often wonder what becomes of all the Pianos and Organs that are manufactured. There are a number of large factories in Canada turning them out in increased number all the time.

Our sales of Pianos and Organs for a late month, were sixty in number, or about two and a half for each working day, and our sales are constantly increasing. We do not believe that any other house in the Maritime Provinces sold one half of that number of instruments (mostly planes) in the same time

Maritime Provinces soid one haif of that number of instruments (mostly planos) in the same time.

We control such makes as the Steinway, Gerhard Heintzman, Nordheimer, Martin-Orme and other good makes, and that is a proof of our large sales and purchases. The public knows by experience that it can get the best instruments and best values by dealing with the old reliable

We not only have the best stock of new Pianos but also have some good bargains in slightly used Pianos.

JAPANESE CHILDREN MUST BE ADMITTED TO THE SCHOOLS

Roosevelt Orders an Enquiry into Recent Occurrences on the Goast—Trying to Patch Up the Trouble

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—President
Roosevelt tonight directed Secretary
Metcalf, of the department of commerce and labor, to proceed to San

The Japanese officials say they realize that the exclusion of the school children are acts local in character, but they say it is hard to convince the people of Japan that the central governmerce and labor, to proceed to San Francisco and make a thorough and complete inquiry into the situation affecting the expulsion of Japanese children from the schools provided for white children, and the determination to place Japanese pupils in separate schools. The president is anxious to obtain at first hand from a cabinet schools. The president is anxious to obtain at first hand from a cabinet officer full information affecting every phase of the subject to the end that whatever action is taken by this government from the cabinet was that the situation was exceedingly grave and whatever action is taken by this government from the cabinet said to-day, after the meeting, that the general opinion of the cabinet was that the situation was exceedingly grave and would require the most delicate treatweet when the prevent an open runture. derstanding. The determination to send Secretary Metcalf to San Francisco, was one of the results of the request made by Viscount Aokai, the Japanese ambassador, who, at a conference with Secretary Root yesterday, asked, in behalf of his government that the Japanese subjects in California be accorded their full rights under the treaty of 1894, including that of the children to attend the public schools of San Francisco. This request was the subject of very long and earnest discussion at 1894, including that of the children to attend the public schools of San Francisco. This request was the subject of very long and earnest discussion at the cabinet meeting today when the conclusion was reached that the best thing to do was to send Mr. Metcalf to California to secure personally all the data which could have any possible bearing on the situation. The dispatch of a cabinet officer on such a mission, it was urged, would demonstrate to the Japanese the evident sincerity the subject of the state of the states have gone unpunished by the federal government, because of the belief that the federal government was without jurisdiction. It has remained for Elihu Root, the present secretary of state, to enunciate the principle that the constitution of Mr. Metcalf will leave Washington tomorrow. It is hardly likely that any report from Mr. Metcalf will be available before the president leaves on his Panama trip, although Mr. Metcalf may send some of his information by telegraph soon after he arrives at San Francisco. It is hoped by the administration to secure the treaty rights of the Japanese will tend to allay the anti-American feeling in Japan until the whole matter is diplomatically adjusted.

Incidental to the inquiry into the school question, Mr. Metcalf will pay some attention to the charges made by Viscount Aokai to Secretary Root, that Viscount Aokai to Secretary Root, that Japanese restaurant keepers in San Francisco have suffered indignities.

These reports, the ambassador says, come from consular officers of the Japanese government in San Francisco.
