TESTIFY AGAINST SCHMITZ

Alexandra, 1,913, Newport, May 7, for CONTINUE THE HEARING IN THE BROWNSVILLE INCIDENT

> WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.
> James W. Newton, who was knocked down by a custom-house inspector at Brownsville by a blow on his head with a six shooter a short time before the town was "shot up," and Frank K. Lincourab who accompanied him on the town was "shot up," and Frank K. Lincourab who accompanied him on the Employment Bureau of the Lipscomb, who accompanied him on that occasion, were both before the senate committee on military affairs this afternoon. Newton and Lipscomb were members of Company C, 25th Infantry, and Newton was one of the twelve men who were placed under arrest and held at San Antonio under suspicion of having been implicated in the shooting up of the town.
> Beth witnesses depicted him on that occasion, were both before the senate committee on military affairs this afternoon.
> Miss Belle Douglas has been selected by the Employment Bureau of the Currie Business University, Ltd., to fill the position of bookkeeper and stenographer for J. M. Roche.
> FIRE INVESTIGATION.
> The Macaulay fire investigation was resumed in the police court yesterday afternoon.
> Divino Frenk Funlong was the first of the town.

Both witnesses denied that they had given any affront to Mrs. Tate, wife of the inspector, who knocked Newton down, and said they were quietly passing along on the sidewalk when attacked. Both denied that they heard any expressions of resentment over the affair afterward, and said it had been allowed to drop so far as they were concerned after it had been reported to Major Henrose who said he would investigate it and endeavor to punish the offending men.

Tesumed in the police court yesterday afternoon.

Driver Frank Furlong was the first witness. He stated that there was no confusion at the fire.

Fred J. Kee, foreman of No. 1 Hose Company was called. When he arrived at the scene of the fire the hose had already been stretched. The other witnesses were Harry Warwick and Walter S. Vaughan. Their testimony was about the same as that given by Furlong and Kee. Mr. Warwick stated that they heard any expressions of resentment over the affair afterward, and said it had been allowed to drop so far as they were concerned after it had been reported to Major Henrose who said he would investigate it and endeavor to punish the offending men.

SINEWCASTLE, June 10—Miles Cluston, of Lower Derby, died yesterday.

He had been a long sufferer from consumption. He was 25 years of age and a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, of Bridgetown, died on Saturday last after a lengthy illness from tuberculong and Kee. Mr. Warwick stated that a little trouble was experienced at the hydrant opposite O. H. Warwick's sides his parents, two sisters survive.
