HE EXHIBITION Running Account of the Exhibits in the Buildings.

Sanborn's Horses on the Parade Ground a Grand Drawing Card -Great Variety of Outdoor Amusements.

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The second day of the exhibition found things in far better shape in all the departments, but with still much to do before everything could be said to be in perfect order. Carriages kept coming in throughout the morning and afternoon, and live stock and agriexhibit of horse shoes, and a number of other exhibits in a more or less adcultural products that arrived late led the attendants at the lower gates pretty busy lives. By night fall, however, nearly every exhibit, save a few de-layed by the Toronto fair, were in position and will be in perfect shape for inspection today.

There was some unavoidable delay in bringing on the out-door attraction fore the grand stand, but those who re present early were treated to a play of horsefeah worth solar to a display of horseflesh worth going many miles to see, as Sanborn's French coach stallions were kept in the ring for some time in advance of the regular programme. These horses must be seen to be fully appreciated. Taken as a whole, the out-door programme is of much merit, and of remarkable richest and most valuable collection of furs ever shown in St. John, and no expense has been spared in fitting up the department. One special show variety. case alone cost $400. It was made spe-

The poultry and live stock departments were largely added to yesterday, and will be seen at their best today. There are many shows of various kinds on the grounds to catch the pennies of visitors. So far the merry-go-round man has done the most con-

What will strike every observan visitor is the prominence given this year to anusements for the masses. This, however, is the tandency of the age, and like wise caterers, the exhibition management has made up its bill of fare to suit the popular taste. Years ago people were content with an indus-trial and agricultural show, supplemented by horse races. Now they want something very much on the lines of a circus.

THE MAIN BUILDING. The building is now pretty well filled with exhibits. On the main floor, a few feet from the secretary's office, on the northern side, is the jewelry booth of J. Harris, and next to it is the display of the souvenir of the provinces, idian Vistas. The eastern side is taken up with the restaurant, while on the main part of the floor, at the northern end, is the exhibit of Acetylene gas, under the supervision of A. Row an. Alongside of this is W. H. John-son & Co.'s piano display, and next to these are the booths of W. Clark, caned meats, and McClaskey's candy establishment. Almost directly in front of the main doors are the Cobb, Bates, Yerxa Co.'s Coffee booth, the London, Ont., Foundry Co.'s display, and Mated prize winner. E. R. Brow of Charlottetown is again to the front with his herd of Guernseys. The Jerseys are mainly from New Brunswick and Quebec. Quebec and Prince Edward Island are specially strong in their exhibits of cattle. The pens here:ofore occupied by pigs and sheep have had to be given over entirely to the former on account of their numbe

In sheep, F. G. Bovyer and Albert Boswell have good exhibits of Oxfords, Lincolns, Shropshires and Leicesters but they have very strong competition from New Brunswick, a Mr. Mullins having an especially fine flock of sheep. Senator Ferguson has on exhibition a few Shropshires, one of them a prize

Senator Ferguson told a Sun reporter yesterday that this season has been an exceptionally good one for the farmers everywhere, and this is very true in the 'sland province, where crops have been far above the average, the hay crop was good and grain and roots excellent. Dairy products have also proved exceedingly valuable commodi-ties to island farmers. The price of cheese has risen to such an extent that farmers are able to get one dollar a hundred weight for their milk. It is estimated that Prince Edward Island farmers will obtain $40,000 this year

WEDNESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The third day of the exhibition show ed not only an increased patronage, but a more perfect running of the entire show in all its departments. The dark and gloomy weather was against high water attendance, in that it deterred country people as well as residents of the city from leaving their homes, but the rain held off all day and the thou-sands who flocked to Barrack Point had a good chance to inspect all that was to be seen without being jostled by an excessive crowd. The out-door amuse-ment programme had to be consider-ably curtailed, and some of its best features eliminated in consequen the dampness, but enough was given to show what was in store for patrons under the most favorable climatic con-

Machinery hall is particularly. serving of good words, and Supt. Allan is entitled to praise for the manner in which he has brought it to the from The carriage house has filled up great-ly since the exhibition doors were pened, and is now the centre of attraction for a large portion of the vis-itors. Several of the exhibitors already report gratifying sales. Amusement hall was well patron yesterday, afternoon and evening, and ro were the side shows and catch-penny stands around the grounds. The dining hall continues to give the most perfect satisfaction, and patrons are loud in praise of the excellence of the meals and lunches served by the adies of Susser.

THE ATTENDANCE.

Yesterday's attendance, reached 4,877, which makes the grand total to date

For the first three days last year the total was 8,963.

THE POULTRY SHOW.

The poultry house this year present ast season, and affords improved fac ies for the inspection of the bir here on view.
