

WHAT LEAVE MY CHURCH OF ENGLAND?

What, leave my Church of England,
My fathers' and my own?
What, that the viper-tinge of England,
Wherein my strength has grown;
Oh, bid me leave all else on earth,
The near and dear I've known,
But not my Church of England,
My fathers' and my own.

What, leave my Church of England,
My glory and my pride;
Behold the faith that Jesus taught—
She holds no faith beside:
"Upon this rock" secure she stands,
Through "gates of brass" manly kept,
For Truth Eternal speaks the word,
"That never shall prevail."

My good old Church of England,
I love her ancient name,
And God forbid the heart should feel
One death to her grave name.
A mother she has been to me,
A mother's love has shown,
She shields my parents' arms,
A stranger's call my own.

My dear old Church of England,
I've heard the tale of olden days,
Of hearts that loved her to the death,
The great, the wise, the good:
"The faith delivers none" they kept,
They burned, they bled, they died—
And shall their children's children now
Be traitors at her side?

My own dear Church of England,
The blood that ran not cold,
That covered her in liquid fire
In martyr's veins of old,
The cruel blaze that visits fold,
That hurls its flames of fire,
That warms the blood in every heart
Of those who love her name.

I love my Church of England,
For she doth love my Lord;
She speaks not, brother, not, teaches not,
But from his written word:
His voice is like my Saviour's voice,
Compassionate and kind;
He tells me all his receipts pure,
She tells me all his pains.

I love my Church of England,
For she doth love my Lord;
To Zion's city fair and bright,
Where Christ the Lord hath gone,
She leads the steps of olden days,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
The "Morning Star" to light my feet
From Darkness into Day.

Then hear, my Church of England,
The child proclaims a vow:
To lead his brethren to the pledge
That God hath witnessed;
Let others leave their arms of love,
To hold their brethren's hands,
My church shall be yet dear to me—
My fathers' and my own.
