This evening the Glenwoods and the Nationals met. Crozwell, formerly of Acadia College, was on the mound for the Nationals. The proceeds will be given to the parents of young Hodgins, who was drowned in the Marsh Creek recently.

THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS

1898—Solly Smith won on foul from Billy O'Donnell in 7th round at Buffalo. This bout was declared to be for the featherweight championship. Smith having claimed that title by reason of his defeat of George Dixon at San Francisco the preceding year. The Smith-Dixon bout was at 120 pounds, and the "Chocolate Drop" bout was to claim the title on the ground that the weight for a title bout should be 118 pounds. Smith, who was a Californian, was generally recognized as the champion in the America, while English fans awarded the honor to Ben Jordan, a Briton, who knocked George Dixon in July, 1898. In September of that year Dave Sullivan claimed the title after having whipped Solly, and in 1899 Eddie Santry knocked out Jordan and Dixon whipped Santry. In 1900 Terry McGovern conquered the colored boy and annexed the featherweight title, and held it against all challengers until he met Young Corbett at Hartford in 1901.

1899—Jack O'Brien defeated Dal Hawkins in 25 rounds at New York. 1905—Joe Jeanette outpointed George Cole in 6 rounds at Philadelphia.

NOTED FRENCH AVIATOR KILLED.

Saumur, France, July 6.—Georges Lescazeaux, one of the best known French aviators, was killed today while attempting a double loop in the air. He had completed the second loop when the propeller broke as the aviator was finishing a glide on the wing, and the machine plunged into the River Loire.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York, 5; Philadelphia, 4

New York, July 6.—New York and Philadelphia divided their double-header here today, the champions taking the first game five to four and Philadelphia evening it up by taking the second seven to two. Larry Doyle won the first game in the ninth in a most sensational way. Mattison had pitched good ball for the visitors and the score was four to two in favor of Philadelphia when the champions took their first bat. Robertson singled and Merkle walked with none out. Doyle then won the game with a homer to right field which Cravath played poorly.

The Philadelphia's won the second game by hard hitting in the early innings.

SHAMROCK WILL PROVE FORMIDABLE

New York, July 6.—American yachtsmen, who are in close touch with the preparations being made by Sir Thomas Lipton for his fourth attempt to lift the America's Cup, have recently received an interesting analysis of the preliminary showing of Shamrock IV. According to this report the challenger designed by Charles Nicholson is likely to prove the most dangerous yacht ever sent across the Atlantic in quest of the famous trophy. Although the English yachting experts will not commit themselves regarding the chances of the challenger as yet, an impression appears to be growing that if Shamrock IV makes the ocean trip without straining she will prove far more formidable than any of the Shamrocks or Valkyries that raced for the cup between 1893 and 1903.

FOOTBALL

A great game will be played this evening on the Barrack Square between the Caledonian and St. John.

FOUR PITCHING STARS WHO ARE "OFF THEIR GAME"

The onward sweep of three of the strongest clubs in either of the big leagues has been materially retarded because four pitchers, who usually can be counted on to win many more games than they lose, have been staggering along with their best form trailing in the dust. They are "Rube" Marquard and "Al" Demaree, of the Giants; Walter Johnson, of Washington, and "Chief" Bender, of the Athletics. Marquard and Demaree got away to promising starts. It looked as if they were going to be just as effective in their work as they were last season, but both of them have slumped, and the failure of these two pitchers to come through with their real form has been a big handicap to the Giants. "Chief" Bender, of the Athletics, and Walter Johnson are also far below last year, and if it had not been for the fine work "Joe" Boehling has been doing for Washington the Senators would undoubtedly be much further rearward than they are.

SPORTOGRAPHY "GRAVY"

It will be just a quarter of a century tomorrow since the last championship battle with the raw 'uns under London prize ring rules was pulled off on American soil. On the eighth of July, 1889, John L. Sullivan and Jake Kilrain faced each other on the turf at Richmond, Miss., and battled seventy-five rounds, two hours and sixteen minutes, before the Bostonian triumphed over the Baltimorean. The men were of about the same age, Kilrain having passed the thirty mark the preceding February, and Sullivan in the previous October. They were exactly the same height, five feet ten and a half inches, and in experience there was little to choose between them. Both commenced boxing in Boston about 1880. Both had fought draws with Charlie Mitchell. In 1888 Sullivan fought a 23-round draw with Mitchell in France, where

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

North Bay, Ont., July 6.—Albert Marchand, of Griffith, Ont., was shot dead near Hearst, by a companion named Bouchee, of Romford. The two were members of a party of land prospectors who had been out three weeks. Their dogs raised a moose which was at bay and Marchand and Bouchee were both taking aim at it when Marchand stopped in front of Bouchee's rifle. The bullet entering his side and passing through his heart.

over America had assembled in New Orleans, and several special trains were necessary to carry the 5,000 fans to the scene of trouble. John Fitzpatrick of New Orleans was chosen referee. Kilrain had the sympathy of a majority of the sports, and they split the welkin into small bits during the early rounds, when Jake had all the best of it. There was a negro church near the ring, and it was covered with the colored population of the neighborhood, who yelled themselves hoarse as the ruckus proceeded. Sullivan was in danger several times, but he proved to have the greater endurance, and in the 7th chapter Mike Donovan, as second for the same Jake, tossed in the sponge. John L. reigned undisputed until September, 1892, when a pompous bank clerk from San Francisco took his measure at New Orleans, fighting under Queensberry rules.

ENGLISHMEN LOSE IN TENNIS CHAMP'SHIP

Wimbledon, England, July 6.—Norman E. Brooks of Australia and Anthony F. Wilding of New Zealand today won the all-comers lawn tennis doubles championship by defeating the English players, H. R. Barrett and C. P. Dixon. The score was 6-1, 6-1, 5-7, 8-6.

Miss E. Ryan of California and Miss A. M. Morton captured the all-comers ladies' doubles lawn tennis championship from the present holders, Mrs. Larcombe and Mrs. Hannam, whom they beat by 6-1, 6-3.

MINISTERS WANT STOP PUT TO FORCIBLE FEEDING

London, July 6.—The Rev. Reginald J. Campbell, pastor of the City Temple; the Rev. R. F. Horton, pastor of Lyndhurst Road church, Hampstead; the Rev. J. H. Shakespeare, and other prominent non-conformist ministers have sent a letter to Premier Asquith appealing to him to put a stop to the forcible feeding of suffragette prisoners.

The writers declare that the employment of forcible feeding is barbarous, cruel and disgusting and that, regarded as a deterrent, it has proved futile.

"We regard it as a dangerous and exasperating element," they continue, "and in the present deplorable state of affairs we cannot stand silently by and see parliament adjourn, possibly over a period of many months, while forcible feeding is going on in English prisons. We assure you that the growth of public bitterness and resentment over it among otherwise peaceable and law-abiding women is the greatest social danger of our time."

P. A. makes men smoke hungry

Just you get a whiff of "the international joy smoke" and it's dollars to dough-nuts you beat it 'cross lots to the nearest store that sells tobacco—and stock up! The flavor and aroma of Prince Albert has got 'em all backed off the boards. It sure will hit the spot with you—it does with more millions of men who smoke it in a pipe or cigarette than any other pipe or cigarette tobacco. Get the drift of that?

PRINCE ALBERT
the inter-national joy smoke

just does all that we say it will do. It can't bite your tongue and it can't parch your throat. All this is because P. A. is made by a patented process that cuts out the bite! Why, this process has simply revolutionized smoking tobacco.

Prince Albert rolls up the bulliest makin's cigarette you or any other man ever smoked. It puts the jolt of joy right into your system.

You can just do "makin's" sunrise to sunset and have a lot of fun. Why, P. A. in a cigarette is absolutely a revelation. You go to it!

Prince Albert is the largest seller in the United States. It is now being imported into Canada by wholesale dealers and is sold by all of the leading retail dealers in one-eighth-pound tidy red tins.
