CONDENSED NEWS
LOCAL AND GENERAL
Captured Germans
TO BE SENT BACK TO AMHERST
In letters that come home there is always good and interesting news.
William Watson of Pokokik road, has received a letter from his nephew, Thomas McAuley, now serving in Belgium with "A" Section No. 1 Field Ambulance, in which he describes, as far as allowed, life at the front. The St. John boys in this unit, he says, have made a name for themselves in various ways.
They had been personally commended for gallantry, following one big engagement, by a commanding officer of general's rank. "The St. John boys have many good baseball players in their section," he says, "and the ambulance unit has the best team in the first contingent.
We would be very grateful if someone would send us a few baseballs.

Four Men Taken in Boat Off Dipper Harbor and Brought to the City-Two from Kaiser Wilhelm der Grasso.
The four Germans who were captured at Chance Harbor yesterday morning, while attempting to make their way to the United States in a small boat after having escaped from the detention camp at Amherst (N. S.), were brought to the city yesterday afternoon. The arrest of the prisoners was due to the vigilance and prompt action of Robert L. Belding and Councillor Fred Thompson of Chance Harbor and the Germans were captured off Dipper Harbor by a motor boat commanded by Councillor Thompson, Leonard and Thompson and Harry Clinch.
