Kansas dispatches say that eight dead bodies, including one of a child eighteen years old, were found under the house of the Bender family, Cherryvale, Labelle County, and near where the body of Sen ator York's brother was recently found. The Bender family left the County two weeks ago, but the excitement is so great and the determination to bring the guilty parties to justice so strong, that no effort will be spared to affect their arrest. The bodies thus far discovered and identified are B. F. McKenzie, identified by his brother-in-law; H. Sonehor, and child 18 months old, indentified by his father-in-law, W. F. T. Careby, 123d Illinois infantry; D. Brown, identified by a Howard County man; and John Geary, by his wife; Wm. A. York, by his brother, Col. A. M. York. All were killed by a blow on the back of the head with a hammer and had their throats cut except the little girl.
