BACHELOR'S CONSOLATION. BY ROCKAFELLOW.

In a snug little cot, not a thousand miles off, Lived a lonely, contented old "bach," Who cooked his own grub and dined by himself, And had no one to sew on a patch.

With his cat, and his dog, and his little pe oft went with holes in his clothing.

There no doubt were misses and maids quit

Now, this lucky old bachelor heard by a friend, Or read in his morning journal, Of the wonderful stitching of sewing machines, And considered the matter nocturnal.

Having fully determined to get a machine, He spent a whole day in inspection. For an hour or so would never suffice To select from so large a collection. For some thought the "Wheeler & Wilson" the best.

And others the "Wilsox & Gibbs," While others affirmed that the agents of both Were too much inclined to tell fibs.

and a few for the "Florence" were ready to fight While most liked the "New Family Singer;" Another one swore the "Osborne" was best, The last one, I think, was a shaker.

gained By the feed that could make it sew back.

But our Bachelor friend was dissatisfied still.
For the "Florence" so complicate seemed.
He feared the minutise might "get out of fix,"
And could never be wholly redeemed. Then they told him another advantage they had Over other machines in the West,
That four different stitches with it they could And from four he might sure get the best. Our hero replied, "What's the use of the our!

If one of the stitches is best,
Why that is the right one to use all the time,!
And what will you do with the rest?"

The "Howe" and the "Wilson" both vainly he tried,
The "Domestio" and "Osborne" as well.
But the "Howe" was too heavy, the "Wilson" too light, And the "Osborne" broke down on a fell.

After trying in vain many other Machines,
Without any hope of success,
He called where the "Singer New Family"

And they quickly relieved his distress. For here half a dozen machines were engaged
In stitching of different sorts,
Which they did so complete, and with so little

XVII.

In lightness of running, in stillness and speed,
In construction so simple, yet strong.
Sure none but the "New Family Singer" would vie,
Though he'd searched through the infinite

Then the stitch was so neat, so elastic, so strong That he vainly endeavored to break it. And so many advantages in it combined That he quickly decided to take it. J. D. LAWLOR,

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color. A dressing which is at once agreeable healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be seved by this application and stimus saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING. nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.
