The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought. What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the enchanting spot where— "Maud Muller, on a summer's day, Raked the meadows sweet with hay;" One of those lovely New England land-scapes, which the engraver has repre-sented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns. Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, is the illustration accompanying the "Song of the Brook," where the stream-let, dashing beneath the rustic bridge, goes chattering

"Over stony ways,
In little sharps and trebles." "Till last by Philip's farm it flows, To join the brimming river."

Altogether, this is one of the most charming and elegant books ever issued by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament for the parlor table; a valuable addition to any family library. EXPERIENCED AGENTS WANTED.
