Collingwood Wins The Round

For real excitement last night's O.H.A. intermediate final at the Toronto Arena in which Collingwood defeated Kingston 3 to 2, and won the round and championship by three goals was in a class by itself. AIS though the hockey was below par the thrills were many and were not confined to the contestants. The rival supporters took a hand in proceedings and a peaceful argument failed, endeavoring to win their point by fictitious ability.

Kingston were outgeneraled by the winners and as in the initial game looked systematic play but nevertheless the breaks were all against them. One of these came in the final period, when Kingston claimed a goal on Milten's shot. The Limestone City Supporters crowded behind the net, and although all protested that Milten had tripped, the referee was adamant and refused to allow it. In the meantime the Collingwood team who were showing signs of distress previous to this incident were given ample time to recuperate and when the whistle blew Derry and one of the Collingwood players staged a regular bout with honors even. The crowd swarmed on to the ice and several of the rougher element offered to display their prowess. The police arrived on the scene referred the combatants impartially and took one of the contestants in hand. Brown is injured.

The game was interesting enough, but the hockey was not as good as in the previous fixture. Collingwood used better judgment especially on the attack and this won them the honors. The Kingston forwards attempted to check the puckcarrier goal and left too much work to their defense. One unfortunate incident that proved a serious handicap to the losers was the accident to Brown. He was tripped by an opponent and heavily and dislocated his shoulder. Brown is one of the best men on the Kingston team and was showing good form until injured.

For Collingwood Cook was the star. He turned aside many shots that were labeled for goals, and by his grand work proved the deciding factor in the result. "Rube" Milten and Derry outgassed the Northerners' defense in a dozen times but could not beat Cook. McLeod checked and, rushing in telling style while upon the forward line, Herbert Foulis and Fryer were best. The first named acted as a substitute and turned in a nice performance, his stick handling and all round work being a treat to watch.

Kingston were greatly outwitted by their opponents but they asked no quarter and gave none. "Wally" Elmer proved a regular Brown when it came to bodychecking and he handed out many a bump. Elmer did not mind how big they were and sailed into McLeod at every opportunity. Hagerman played well on the defense and worked hard at all stages. Walsh in goal was also in rare form and made many clever saves.

"Rube" Milten was the best of the forwards but, as in the first contest, he fell down badly as a goal getter. "Terry" Milten also proved a disappointment in this respect and the failure of these two sharpshooters spelled defeat for Kingston. Derry showed good for n, but he to, threw away good opportunities to tally. Kingston went into the contest confident of their ability to win the round and in the first period looked the better team. However they were outplayed and the intermission found Collingwood leading 1 to 0. In the second the losers had all the better of it and notched two to Collingwood's nil, but in the final session the champions struck their stride and outplayed the losers.

TIGER MANAGEMENT NOW THREATENS TO INSTITUTE REPRISALS

Hamilton, March 14.—The Denials have made a belated request to the O.H.A. to investigate the amateur status of some of the Tiger players and this morning affidavits were forwarded to Secretary Hewitt from every member of the Tiger team. Now that the Denials have started something the Tigers may take a little fling at the "house cleaning" stunt and will ask two of the Denials to explain their actions during the past year or two. Tigers have been given information to the effect that one of the Denial mainstays played semiprofessional baseball and that another received big money for playing hockey in Renfrew; in fact some time ago a disinterested party volunteered to take an affidavit to that effect but Tigers preferred to win on the ice rather than in the committee room, and did not press the charges.

"Knotty" Lee, manager of the Brantford Ball team, is out on a scouting trip, the stamping ground being Buffalo, Rochester and Cleveland.

Shortstop Roger Peckinpah, of the New York Americans, who was said to be a holdout, has reached an agreement with Col. T. L. Houston.

John Miljus, who was wounded in action and is now in France, is probably the only major league player who has signed a contract for the coming season, while still on duty overseas. He was a Brooklyn pitcher.

Outfielder Leo Callahan has signed a contract with the Phillies. Callahan was with the Brooklyn's several years, but he did not receive a fair trial. He drifted to the Newark and Toronto Internationals, and during the seasons of 1916 and 1917 he battled in the 300 class. He was strongly recommended by the veteran scout, Larry Sutton.

DENTS CLUB HAS NOT PRO- TESTED

Secretary W. A. Hewitt of the O. H. A. says that Col. Thompson, of the Canadian Army Dental Corps, has declined to inform the Hamilton players supply affidavits as to their amateur standing did not come from the Dental Hockey Club. The club, as a whole, has no hand in the matter and are perfectly satisfied to admit that they were beaten by a better team. If a request has been made to the O.H.A. and one has been—it has come from some individual officer, and was not authorized by the club, says Col. Thompson. Mr. Hewitt said that an official of the Dental Club had written to him asking that the Hamilton players produce affidavits. He forwarded the letter to manager Jones of the Tigers, and it is expected that the affidavits will be given to the O.H.A. to-morrow. However, Col. Thompson wishes the fans to know that the Dental Hockey Club as a whole have had no hand in the matter.

FORMER LEAF PITCHER GOES TO SALT LAKE CITY

New York, March 13.—Clifford Markle, pitcher, has been released to the Salt Lake City team of the Pacific Coast League by the New York Americans, it was announced to-day. Markle has not played with the Kilties since 1916, but the club has retained an option on his services.

EARL SMITH SIGNS

New York, March 13.—Earl Smith, the young Rochester catcher for whom the Giants gave five ball players and some cash, sent his signed contract to the offices of the New York club to-day. Smith started the baseball world a while ago by announcing that he was a holdout. In doing this Smith established a record, for he is the first ball player known who was a holdout in the major league before he even played in said league.

His home is in Hot Springs, Ark., and he has notified Manager McGraw that he is already in good condition. Smith made a great record with Rochester last season. In ninety-four games he had a batting average of .358, which included fourteen three-baggers and twenty-four two-baggers. He had a fielding average of .969.

WILSON WOLFE COVENANT

Of the Prelim

WHICH WILL BE COMPLETE
NE-TWEEK.

PARIS, March 15. (By Car Gross)—President Wilson was expected to urge the inclusion of a league of nations in the preliminary peace treaty with Germany. It understood he believes that its course not as possible but as advised.

The President's position in the regard was to be made known, it understood, either at an informal meeting this noon or at the session of the supreme war council, called three o'clock this afternoon. At noon meeting he was to be officially acquainted with the progress in the peace work during his absence. Despite the activities of the various committees while the President was away, his return given new impetus to every department of the conference, owing to the fact that

U.S. Secretary Daniel Takes Ship for Europe

Marked Change Wrong Within Twelve Months

PARIS STREETS FILLED WITH LAUGHING CROWDS.

PARIS, March 15. (By Fred Ferguson)—One year ago today, world covered in anticipation of the launching of enemy's master offensive of the war. On March 21, the war was struck. Today the final work of the peace settlement was well on way, the terms of which will militate bring her to her knees. No great picture of the triumph could be presented than the contrast of the president of the world's greatest democracy riding through the streets of Paris on his way to the peace deliberations, and these same streets a year ago a brilliant mood will bathe the boulevard and the beautiful Champ Elysees, with silver light tonight.

A year ago the same brilliance would have meant terror and destruction as the German airplanes were hovering above aires, shrieking, the streets became deserted and the city soon scarcely to breathe. Tonight laughing crowds will throng the streets. Hundreds of children played in the Champs Elysees this afternoon, beneath the wheels of long lines of guns, which a year ago were hurling death in support of autocracy's last assault. In Germany, hunger and revolution have taken the place of jungledom. All delegates to Brussels have present final conditions to her, by which she forced to turn over her magnificent merchant fleet as part payment of food from the larders of her enemies.

As the committees were winding up the work of their final recommendations, the word from every delegation was: "We are now waiting for President Wilson." Numerous questions are awaiting his final word. For instance the matter of disposition of the German fleet will be presented to him for his opinion.

With France and Italy desiring portion of these vessels it is apparent that a disagreement also has developed between naval and civilian representatives on other delegations. The navy men, in what might be regarded as curious manner, from the standpoint of percentage, favor the sinking of the ships. One of their arguments is the such a course will be in alignment with the disarmament move. The civilians oppose sinking the ships or the grounds of economic loss.

Excepting such side issues, the stage has been completely set for speeding the work of bringing about peace. I all moves on schedule the treaty may be ready and the enemy summed by the anniversary of the very day when he began his last desperate attempt to conquer the world.
