NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.
1873.
Now, as heretofore, THE TRIBUNE strives to be first of all and preeminently a news paper.
France a Republic—England and Germany gradually permeated with Republican ideas—Spain swaying in the nerveless grasp of a ruler too good for a King and too weak for a Republican, who is unable to govern the great island that blocks the entrance to our Gulf of Mexico, and equally unable to give it up—the German speaking peoples agitated by a new Protestantism, separating from the See of Rome on the dogma of Papal Infallibility and assuming to recognize the "Old Catholics"—the whole Continent pervaded by the intellectual ferment that comes of the conflict between old ideas, philosophical, theological, material, and the advance of physical Science—Russia and Great Britain running a race for the final gains that shall determine Asiatic supremacy—China seeming ready to abandon her advances and reclose her half opened gates—Japan abolishing feudalism and inviting Western civilization to irradiate Western commerce to enrich her long-hidden empire—such are phases of the news from abroad which the mails over all Continents and the wires under all Seas are daily bearing to us. With able and trusted correspondents in the leading capitals, and wherever great changes are in progress, THE TRIBUNE aims, at whatever cost, to lay before its readers the most prompt, complete, and popular presentment of these diverse and conflicting movements, through all of which, as it fondly trusts, the toiling masses are everywhere struggling up toward larger recognition and a brighter future.
At home the struggle for freedom seems over. The last slave has long been a citizen; the last opposition to emancipation, enfranchisement, equal civil rights, has formally been abandoned. No party, North or South, longer disputes the result of the War for the Union; all declare that these results must never be undone, and, with a whole people thus united on the grand platform of All Rights for All, whereto our bloody struggle, and the prolonged civil contests that followed, have led us, the Republic closes the records of the bitter, hateful Past, and turns peacefully, hopefully, to the less alarming because less vital problems of the Future. To whatever may elucidate the general discussion or action on these, THE TRIBUNE gives amplest space and most impartial record. Whatever parties may propose, whatever political leaders may say, whatever officers may do, is fairly set down in its columns, whether this news helps or hinders its own views. Its readers have the right to an honest statement of the facts; and this they always get.
THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, now more than thirty years old, has endeavored to keep up with the progress of the age in improvement and enterprise. It devotes a large share of its columns to Agriculture as the most essential and general of human pursuits. It employs the ablest and most successful cultivators to set forth in brief, clear essays their practical views of the Farmer's work. It reports public discussions which elucidate that work, gathers from every source agricultural news, the reports of the latest experiments, the stories of the latest successes and failures, and whatever may tend at once to better Agriculture, and to commend it as the first and most important of progressive Art, based on natural science.
THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE appeals also to Teachers Students, and persons of inquiring minds, by the character of its literary contents, which include reviews of all the works proceeding from the master minds of the old or of the New World, with liberal extracts from those of especial interest. Imaginative Literature also claim attention; but in a subordinate degree. "Home Interests" are discussed weekly by a lady specially qualified to instruct and interest her own sex, and the younger portion of the other. No column is more eagerly sought or perused with greater average profit than hers. The News of the Day, elucidated by brief comments, is so condensed that no reader can deem it diffuse, while given sufficiently in detail to satisfy the wants of the average reader. Selections are regularly made from the extensive correspondence of THE DAILY TRIBUNE from every country, and its editorials of more permanent value are here reproduced. In short, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE commends itself to Millions, by ministering to their intellectual wants more fully than they are met by any other journal, while its regular reports of the Cattle, Country Produce, and other Markets, will, of themselves, save the farmer who regularly notes them far more than his journal's price.
For the family circle of the educated farmer or artisan, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE has no superior, as is proved by the hundred of thousands who, having read it from childhood, still cherish and enjoy it in the prime and on the down hill of life. We respectfully urge those who know its worth to commend THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE to their friends and neighbors, all of whom prefer it to clubs at price which barely pay the cost of paper and press-work.

HASTY CONSUMPTION CURED BY FELLOWS HYPOPHOSPHITES.
CARBONEAR, NEWFOUNDLAND, Jan. 3, 1871.
MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS.
DEAR SIR: I came to this country in May, 1869. I found a countryman of mine laboring under some affection of the lungs. I recommended your Syrup, tried at the Druggists in Harbor Grace, but they thought I was inventing the name at their expense. However, in April, 1870, Mr. Edgar Joyce rapidly wasted away with every symptom of quick consumption, so that he was unable to walk across the room, having no appetite, pains in the left side, nervous system unstrung, dry, hacking cough &c. Fortunately I learned that your Syrup could be obtained at Mr. Dearin's, in St. John's, and immediately procured some (showed one to W. H. Thompson who ordered a supply from you at once). This was Tuesday afternoon; at night he took the prescribed dose, and in the morning he described the very results notified on the wrapper. His appetite soon began to return, and a voracious one it was, too; the dry, hacking cough changed into loose but violent attacks, finally disappearing altogether; pains left his side, his hand assumed its usual steadiness, and before he finished ten bottles his health was quite restored, and to-day not a more healthy person is to be found on our streets; and it is the opinion of all, had he not been fortunate in getting your valuable Syrup of Hypophosphites, he would now be in his grave.
He happened to be in W. H. Thompson's the day your first shipment arrived, and took at once four bottles to the Labrador, which he was very anxious to do, but had no occasion to use them himself. No other medicine will he ever prescribe, recommend, or give, but yours.

GOOD THINGS
GOOD THINGS will address itself to the young of all ages, from the little beginner, who can just read a picture, to the big boys and girls who study at the desk or shout in the playground; and so onwards up to the veterans who, after all their learning, turn to the children for a fresher wisdom, and after all their work, sit in the shady corner and play the old games over again in their heads. "GOOD THINGS" hopes, as a periodical, to have its margins well thumbed and dog-eared, and when the binder has rimmed those and made it fit for the library, the volume will try for a fixed place there in good company. The favors of a multitude of assorted "goodies" not to be at into a prospectus; but th
WILL SPEAK FOR ITSELF.
TERMS.—Yearly Subscription, $2.50. Single Numbers 25 cents, with Lippincott's Magazine $5.50. Liberal Clubbing Rates. SPECIMEN NUMBER mailed, postage paid, to any address, on receipt of 20 cents.
THE FIRST OF JUVENILE PERIODICALS
Will continue to merit the claim of its critics to be the "handsomest illustrated paper in the world." New portraits of eminent men equal to those already given of Beecher, Spurgeon, Longfellow, Mason, and others, are in preparation. Religious work at home and abroad, social and domestic life, scenery, this and other lands, events of the day, are among the topics which will be illustrated in the best manner by such artists as Darley, Herrick, Beard, Dixon, and others. Each number of the paper will contain seven or more finely executed engravings.
In the literary department, Dr. C. S. Robinson, whose oriental sketches have been an acceptable feature of the paper the present year, will furnish a new series, descriptive of life and customs in the East. On the conclusion of John S. C. Abbott's fascinating "History of William the Conqueror," other historical sketches from the same masterly pen will be forthcoming. S. E. Todd will give us designs of medium-priced houses, and show how to build them cheaply. Contributions may also be expected from Rev. Drs. Theodore L. Cuyler, Howard Crosby, J. G. Craighead, Cyrus Hamlin, J. E. Rankin, Profs. H. M. Baird and W. C. Wilkinson, Jacob Abbott, A. L. Noble, Mrs. E. L. Beers, Mrs. A. E. Barr, Mrs. M. E. Miller, Mrs. M. A. Denison, and other popular writers.
