

of the McCarthy League, was formerly Presdt. of the Can. Branch of the Imp. Fed. League, and is now a mem. of the Council of the Brit. Empire League. He was also for many yrs. Presdt. of the West Simcoe Agricul. Soc., and is now Presdt. of the Country and Hunt Club, Toronto. Mr. McC. is fond of thoroughbred cattle and a good horse, and for some yrs. bred many of these on a farm owned by him in the neighbourhood of Barrie. In religious belief, an Ang., he m. 1st, Oct. 21, 1867, Emma Catherine, dau. of the late E. G. Lally, Barrie (she d. 1870); and 2ndly, July 15, 1873, her sister, Agnes Elizabeth, relict of R. B. Bernard, do.—174 Beverley St., Toronto; "Tolendol," Allandale P. O., Lake Simcoe, Ont.; Toronto Club; Rideau Club; Albany Club; Royal Can. Yacht Club; Country and Hunt Club.

"A man of eloquence, ability, sagacity and boldness."—John A. Ewan.

"One who never speaks save when he has something to say."—Spectator.

"One who must wield great force in the advancement of any cause upon which he may bend his energies."—Herald.

"Ambitious, public-spirited and proud, when he has put his hand to the plough it is not with the intention of looking back."—Citizen.

McCARTHY, His Honour Thomas Anthony Maitland, Co. Ct. Judge, bro. of the preceding, was b. at Oakley Park, near Dublin, Irel., May 5, 1838. Coming with his father to Can., 1847, he was ed. at the Barrie Grammar Sch., and was admitted an atty., 1861. He practised his profession in Orangeville, and was apptd. Co. Ct. Judge for Dufferin, Feb. 5, 1881. His Honour is a Freemason, and a mem. of the Ch. of Eng. He m. Nov., 1866, Jennie Frances, young dau. of the late Robt. C. Stewart, Bondhead, Ont.—Orangeville, Ont.

McCAUGHAN, Rev. William John (Presb.), was b. at Moycraig, Ballycastle, Co. Antrim, Irel., Dec. 4, 1859. When he was 10 yrs. of age his father died. Ed. at the Coleraine Inst., he matriculated before he was 16 at Magee Coll., Londonderry.

In 1879 he became Senior Master in Erdington Coll. Sch., near Birmingham. While there he decided to enter the ministry. He went to Edinburgh, and after taking theol. classes at the Free Ch. Coll., was licensed by the Presby. of Route, and ordained to the ministry by the Presby. of Ballymena, Jan. 1, 1884. For nearly 2 yrs. he was pastor of the Wellington St. cong., Ballymena, and, in 1885, accepted a call to the Mount Pottinger Ch., Belfast. After labouring there with great zeal and success, he received a unanimous call to St. Andrew's Ch., Toronto, as the successor of the late Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, B.D., the former pastor. He accepted the appt., and was inducted therein, Mch. 25, 1897. Mr. McC. has held high rank in both the Masonic and Orange bodies. He has been trustee of the Ind. Order of Rechabites, V.-P. of the Y.M.C.A., and High Chief Ranger of the Ind. Order of Foresters. He served as joint ed. of the Ind. Forester, and as ed. of the Presb. Quarterly Visitor. He has lectured on William the Silent; William III.; Maurice of Orange; Abraham Lincoln; Oliver Cromwell; The Gunpowder Plot; Six Weeks of Home Rule; Our Greatest Irishman; Sir Walter Scott; John Knox; Queen Victoria; The Royal Standard; Grattan's Parlt.; The Siege of Derry; Canada, etc. He m. Apl., 1890, Sara A., young dau. of Jas. W. Cooper, Philadelphia, Pa. Politically, his sympathies incline towards Liberalism.—St. Andrew's Manse, Simcoe St., Toronto.

"An Irishman racy of the soil, a thorough Presb. judged according to the Westminster Confession, a loyal Orangeman, and not only a winner of souls, but a magnetic preacher."—Toronto World.

McCAUL, Charles Coursolles, Q.C., is the 6th s. of the late Rev. John McCaul, LL.D., Presdt. of Univ. Coll., Toronto, by Emily Augusta, his wife, dau. of the late Hon. Justice Jonas Jones, Toronto. B. in Toronto, Feb., 1858, he was ed. at U. C. Coll. (Exhibitioner, 1873), and at Toronto Univ. (B.A. and gold. med. in Nat.